Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky Re: Hans and Susi
National Council of Jewish Women Emanuel
1016 Olive Street
El Paso, Texas

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

The foregoing arrived in the United States as visitors on February 9, 1938

They have permission to remain in the United States until August 9, 1938. Hans' passport is valid until September 21, 1940, while Susi's passport is good until December 14, 1939.

Mr. Siegmund Emanuel, uncle of the children, is desirous of having them change their statue by going to Mexico.

He has indicated his willingness to sponsor them.

The children, who are fourteen and nineteen years of age, respectively, have their necessary birth and police certificates with them.

The uncle has an average yearly income of approximately $4,000; has $1,286 on deposit in a Chicago bank; and has real estate estimated at about $30,000.

While the uncle is not a rich man, he has a comfortable home and will gladly accommodate the children in his household.

In view of the fact that Mr. Emanuel's bank account is so small and the children have no money of their own, we are wondering whether the youngsters will have any sort of a chance with the American Consul at Juarez.

Since the time is getting rather short, we would appreciate hearing from you very soon.

Sincerely yours,

Elsa M. Weinschenk

Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mrs. Weinshenk:

Hans and Susi Emanuel.

Replying to your letter of the 12th inst., I would strongly advise that you send all the documents on this case and let me present them to the Consul before the children leave Chicago. Should the Consul accept the case favorably, I will wire results and they can come here within a few days.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.
