Re Clara Aronowitz

My dear Mrs. Glushko,

I have been sending to N.Y.
the report of this family, and didn't know that you wanted a report also. I visited the family last week. One son, Simon, aged 20 married about 4 months ago. The mother works in a needle factory, and is doing fairly well, and wants more work, which I will endeavor to get for her. The second girl was convalescing from the mumps. The house looked very nice, and she said that all the furniture had now been paid for.
When the oldest girl finishes school in June, she will then be 16 years old, and the mother says she will probably go to work.

The oldest son, Irving, is away in Tennessee, she said, but sends her money.
I will continue to look after the family.

and help them, whenever I can. She promised to send you a report, last week. The children are doing very good work, at school, especially, the 2 oldest girls

Hoping this report is satisfactory,
I remain

Sincerely yours

Dear Mrs. Glaborsky:— I am so sorry you have been put to so much inconvenience thru' an apparent neglect on my part.
When your letter came I immediately got in touch with me chairman, Mrs.

to learn that she had wired you in immediate reply. Your second wire came to her & when your today's letter came
I again got in touch with her and she said

My dear Mrs. Glazovsky.

An enclosing report of the Ananant family. I do not understand what was wrong with the other report. Mrs. Ananant told me she had sent her report as usual. I did not know the exact time at which she was to send her report, but since I now know it to be in October and April, I shall always remind her of it. I visited her during Pesach week, and everything was nice and neat, and they were all well-dressed. I have all the letters that you sent to Mrs. Marx, the President.

My dear Mrs. Glabovsky,

I visited the Aronson family recently, and found conditions quite satisfactory. The eldest girl now goes to business college, and in a few months will be able to earn money. The son Simon was married about 4 months ago, but continues to support the family. Mrs. Aronson herself is still employed in the necktie factory, and earns about $18 per week. The house is well furnished and all paid for. The youngest girl recently had mumps but is well again. The children have had excellent school reports, and the oldest girl stood at the head of her class.

Hoping this is satisfactory.

I remain

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

We have just received this report from St. Louis:

"This was our other bonded case, but she and her family have moved to Cleveland, where the oldest girl and youngest boy have been employed, so connections with them have ceased."

Apparently, the St. Louis Organization does not know the whereabouts of this family in Cleveland. If you have the family's address, will you send this to us.

Re: Mrs. Clara Aronowitz

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

Mrs. Aronowitz gave us the following information regarding the present status of the family:

Mrs. Aronowitz and Regina are working for the M. D. Simon & Co., this city. Mrs. Aronowitz works in the factory finishing bow ties. She does piece work, and averages $14.00 a week. Regina works in the factory also, and earns $12.00 a week. Henry works for Richman Brothers, a large clothing concern in this city. He is in charge of the wrapping department and earns $18.00 a week.

The family lives in a nice Jewish residential district. Their income is sufficient to afford them the necessities of life, although it is Mrs. Aronowitz's wish that she might establish herself in a business venture of her own, preferably a restaurant. She has had a great many years' experience in conducting a restaurant when the family lived in Germany. This venture seems inadvisable at present, since Mrs. Aronowitz is not well acquainted in this city, and has no capital to back this venture.

Regina is apparently adjusting herself. She has many girl friends. Frieda is in the 5 A grade, and Mathilda in the 3 A grade at the Alexander Rickoff school here. Mathilda also attends Hebrew school. Frieda is planning to join a girl's club at our Council Educational Alliance in the neighborhood. Both girls have membership cards at the Council Educational Alliance library. Henry is also thinking of joining a group of young men at this settlement.

The children are all devoted to their mother, and there seems to be a fine family spirit.

Re: ARNOWITZ,
(Mrs.) Clara

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky
1016 Olive Street

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

The Arnowitz family have been having a difficult time. Mrs. Arnowitz was in the hospital from 7-7 to 7-26; she had her gall bladder and appendix removed. She was advised at that time by the doctor not to return to work for a month.

Henry does packing and earns about $18 or $20 a week. Regina is still working at the tie factory. However, during July and August, they had slack season and Regina worked only four days a week. She is working full time now earning $14 a week. Frieda has left school and is now employed at the tie factory too. Matilda is still going to school.

Mrs. Arnowitz will undoubtedly go back to work soon again. Due to her illness, however, it was necessary for us to loan her $40 which we expect her to pay back as soon as she returns to work.

The family have moved to 876 Lakeview Road. They will probably be able to get along better now since Frieda is working and Mrs. Arnowitz will soon resume her work.

Madam:-

Referring to your letter of October 1, 1929, in the case of CLARA ARONOWITZ and family you are advised that the bond reads in part as follows:-

"that the above-bounden obligors, or either of them, shall submit to the Immigration Officer in Charge at the port of El Paso, Texas, a written report within thirty days prior to the expiration of six months from the date hereof and within thirty days prior to the expiration of each six months' period thereafter, respectively, showing as to said aliens (a) residence and occupation, and (b) whether said aliens have been an inmate of a public institution during the period covered by said report; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue."

It will be noted that your report does not show whether these aliens have been an inmate of a public institution during the period covered by said report. Will you kindly have a supplementary report made covering this report? The bond was executed April 27, 1925.

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

Referring to Mr. Milliken's letter to you of November 5th, all that he wants is an additional report, stating that none of the aliens have been inmates of any public institution during the period covered by the report.

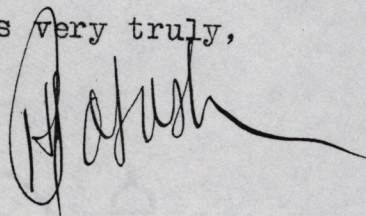

If Mrs. Aronowitz was in a hospital for an operation, I do not believe they would in any way construe this to mean that she was an inmate of a public institution. By this they mean that none of the aliens have been in an orphanage or charitable home or any institution of that character, and I think you should be able to get a supplemental report from Cleveland without any trouble.

I would send Mr. Milliken's letter to your correspondent in Cleveland, asking them to give you a supplemental report to the effect that none of these aliens have been inmates of any public institution during the period mentioned. I think this will in all things satisfy Mr. Milliken.

The letters from Mr. Milliken and Miss Firth are herewith enclosed.

RE: Aronowitz, Clara
Henry
Regina
Frieda
Matilda

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

The Jewish Social Service Bureau of Cleveland referred to us your inquiries on the Aronowitz family.

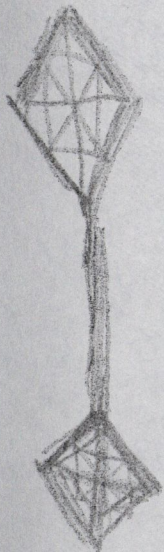

Our first contact with the family was in June, 1925, when Mrs. Aronowitz applied for a loan, as she wanted to open a rooming house to earn a livelihood. She was referred to the Jewish Loan Association, but as she could not secure the needed signers this loan was not granted.

In February, 1927 she requested that we aid her in securing more sewing at a tie factory where she was employed. Later in July she visited the office and claimed to owe three months rent. She was unable to continue working as it made her ill and nervous.

In August she asked for assistance as she had been out of work for a month. We gave her a loan of thirty dollars until she could secure work. Henry was earning $19.00 a week and Regina, $8.00.

In September, 1927, she informed us that her son, Irving, in Nashville, had rented a store for her beginning January 1, 1928, and wanted the family to come there. She intended to open a Kosher delicatessen, and was going to use $500.00 her daughter-in-law's parents had given them as a wedding present. She requested that we furnish her with the means of shipping her furniture and transportation for her family. We informed her that we could not advance her money to move because of transportation rulings.

In January, 1928, Mrs. Aronowitz applied for assistance as Henry, who was now in Cleveland, was unable to help her. Regina had a tonsilectomy performed gratis at the Jewish Hospital on December 28, 1927, so a check for $8.00 and a ton of coal was given to supplement Regina's earnings.

Flora Shapiro

10-17-30

In January, 1928, Mrs. Aronowitz again asked for assistance as Henry was out of work and Regina had not yet returned to work. Her sons were paying the rent.

During January, 1928, we gave the following assistance: $8.00 for living expenses, $14.01 for medical supplies; a total of $22.01.

In April, 1928, we learned from a neighbor that the Aronowitz family had moved to Cleveland in March. They left without notifying our agency.

In August, 1929, we received a letter from Cleveland requesting us to interview the eldest son, Simon Aronowitz, and ask for assistance. He claimed to have sent them $10.00 at that time.

In September, 1930, Frieda phoned requesting us to make a visit. Mrs. Aronowitz returned to St. Louis in April and the children came in July. On their arrival they rented a $40.00 flat, and now were being evicted. Regina is the only one employed steadily and her earnings at the factory vary from $8.00 to $10.00 a week.

In October the family moved into a $32.50 flat against the advice of our agency, and have recently asked that we pay toward the rent, but to date we have not assisted.

We intend to have a meeting of the family, including Simon and his wife, to discuss future plans. We will send you results of this meeting.

We would appreciate the following information from your agency. When and how did they come to Texas? Who signed their bond in Texas? Who paid for the original transportation to St. Louis?

We are under the impression that the five year probation period for this family ended April, 1930, and are at a loss to understand why this new information is requested.

Yours very truly,

Dear Miss Hanlon:-

Re-Aronowitz, Clara

Replying to yours of the 17th, will answer your last remarks with reference to the five year probation.

The bond issued in April of 1925 was a perpetual bond, as stated in my wire of last evening, and therefore we will be forced to continue a semi-annual report on this case. As the report now stands they would be subject to deportation, and we feel that it would be an injustice to the children to bring such a hardship to bear upon them at this time. We are also anxious to protect our bondsmen, who are Mr. Haymon Krupp and Mr. William Rosing of this city. Your wire this morning is unfavorable to present before the immigration authorities unless it is your desire to remove this family from St. Louis. The first wire from Cleveland was refused by our immigration inspector because it did not give the families employment. The contents of this telegram are as follows:

"Aronowitz family now live at seven nine seven Parkwood Drive. Have not been Dependent on any agency Public or private since last report."

We were led to believe by this telegram that the family were still in Cleveland, and we asked Cleveland to give us the necessary employment information.

Could you at this time conscientiously give us a more favorable report on this case? so that we may present it to our United States Department of Immigration and clear up the case for the next six months? If so, please send it my quickest mail, as the authorities are getting very impatient.

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

We are referring to your request of a recent report of the Aronowitz family.

In March, Mrs. Aronowitz again applied to our agency for assistance as she was given an eviction notice. We tried to find inexpensive rooms for the family. We paid for the month's rental until we could notify Cleveland and arrange to return the family. We received permission from Cleveland to return the family, but Mrs. Aronowitz absolutely refuses to return.

On a recent visit, Mrs. Aronowitz was very antagonistic towards our agency and claims she has been seriously ill since she was notified that she should move.

Henry, who has been out of work has been working at a large department store, (Famous-Barr), for the past several weeks and hopes to have this as a steady position. Regina was married in December to a Morris Greenberg and is now living in Los Angeles. Frieda is still unemployed.

We have explained to Mrs. Aronowitz our position in the non-residence matter, but she refuses to understand. She also knows that we will have to refuse further appeals for assistance.

We regret that we cannot send a more favorable report, but do not feel justified in misrepresenting actual facts.

Very truly yours,

Re: Aronowitz Family

Dear Sir; Answering yours of May 9th. wish to say the above family came to our border about seven years ago. While in Juarez we assisted them in a small way such as giving groceries and old clothes. Her application for entry into the U.S. was granted on her own appeal however the Government demanded a bond of $500. which she could not furnish. Her appeal to the El Paso community brought Mr. H. Krupp and Mr. W. Rosing to her assistance. The bond is assured on their signature.

For the past six years we have had difficulties ~~and~~ annually sending favorable reports to the government both during their residence in St. Louis then Cleveland and back in St. Louis again. We had to sent numerous telegrams to both cities before a satisfactory report could be compiled. Your last report was so unfavorable that we were forced to take the matter up with our Immigration Authorities and they advised the step we took with reference to advising bondsmen to ask for release from their bonds.

Mrs. Aronowitz's daughter and her husband passed through El Paso several months ago and when she called on me I explained the necessity of her Mother becoming an American Citizen which would help release the bond and also explained to her the danger of her Mother asking public Aid. She assured us we would have no further trouble and promised to call again. We have not seen her since.

With reference to the question of deportation I think that a replacement of the bond by a cash bond from her or from her children would stay deportation measures, that is if accompanied by an affidavit showing that ~~the~~ the family have at no time been a public charge while in this U.S. Should they be unable to furnish the above I am afraid the Government will take measures to forfeit the above-present bond and use the money to deport the entire family.

We feel that we have done everything possible from this end this past six years for this family and while we also know that St. Louis and Cleveland have had much with which to contend we feel that the matter at the present time rests entirely with you.

Any further information will be gladly given.

Yours very truly,

Re: Aronowitz-Clara

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

We understand that the Family Service Bureau in St. Louis is having difficulties with this family and that because they are in need, the bondsmen in El Paso are requesting that their bond be withdrawn. Please let us know the amount of the bond, who is bonded, Mrs. Aronowitz or each child or all of them or one of them. What kind of a bond has been given by the bondsmen - a real estate bond or a cash bond? Will you also find out from your immigration authorities whether according to the bond, the woman is deportable if she now becomes a public charge? Of course, we have written to St. Louis that it is their responsibility to see that she is not reported to public officials for aid so that she does not become a public charge. As long as the Jewish charities alone give her aid, she cannot be deported.

Re: Aronowitz —

Dear Miss Rappochy: St. Louis is entirely at fault with the conditions prevailing with reference to the above. As you know we were forced to give semi-annual reports on our bonded cases and it cost us $10.00 to $15.00 each time our telegraphic communication before we could get a satisfactory report such as could be presented to the authorities without the question of a L.P.C. being attached to them.

Their last report was unsatisfactory and so final that there was nothing to do but report to the bondsmen. The bond is $500.00 for the entire family of the mother and 4 children. The fact that they furnished another bond to replace the one given by Mr. Haymon Mugg and Mr. Wm. Rappochy of El Paso.

I am sure that St. Louis will have no difficulty in getting a replacement of the bond. I understand that Regina, the eldest daughter

RE: Aronowitz (Adolph) Clara
 Henry 22
 Frieda 18
 Mathilda 14
 5030 Maple Avenue

Dear Miss Zlabovsky:-

We are writing to give you the most recent report on the Aronowitz family and to tell you why it has been impossible for us to arrange for the bond.

At the end of October Mrs. Aronowitz obtained work as matron at the Sheltering Home for Transients at 5030 Maple and broke up her home. Soon after that Mathilda was sent to Birmingham to live with the married brother, Irving. Frieda was doing housework for a short while but we believe she is at present unemployed. Henry we also believe is out of work and both of the children are at the Sheltering Home with their mother.

Since our last letter to you in October we have made the following efforts to have the family arrange for their bond: On October 20 we visited the daughter, Mrs. Morris Greenberg, who promised to talk with her brother about the bond and report to us. We did not hear from her. On October 30 we visited Henry who also promised to talk with his brother, Simon, and notify us what had been done about the bond. On October 31 we phoned the National Surety Co. and learned that Simon had not been in to arrange about the bond. On October 31 we again wrote to the agency in Birmingham to have Irving interviewed. The response received November 4 stated that he was still willing to pay expenses for the bond but that it would have to be arranged in St. Louis and that he would communicate with us when he was in St. Louis. We learned that he was here during the month of November but did not communicate with us. On November 5 we wrote to Simon again, explaining the seriousness of the situation and requesting that he notify us what he wished us to report to you. On November 24 the agency in Birmingham was again written to and an answer received on December 3 stated that Irving expected to be in St. Louis the following week and would communicate with us. He did not do so.

We do not know what further steps to take regarding this matter as no member of the family seems sufficiently interested to worry about it. If you have any suggestions to make we should appreciate it. Otherwise, we shall make no further efforts to assist the family in arranging this bond.

Very truly yours,

Re: Aronowitz, Clara

Dear Miss Razovsky:

We have delayed writing you about the bond for the Aronowitz family because nothing definite has been arranged.

In July, Irving Aronowitz of Birmingham arranged everything with the National Surety Co. there. They were to communicate with their office, here and Simon was to make the final arrangements. Simon was given this information with the request that he notify us of the arrangements made. He has not communicated with us and numerous letters and telephone messages have brought no response. We recently learned from the Surety Co. that Simon has not made arrangements. We are planning to again communicate with Irving.

We received a letter October 19, 1931 from Mrs. Zlabovsky of El Paso requesting a report which we immediately sent to her. The report was written to give a favorable impression, although it was recently necessary for us to give the family emergency assistance. The family has not made a good adjustment but, as you suggested, we are sending favorable reports to avoid their deportation.

We realize the above is a very difficult problem, and we would like to discontinue the farce of having to give favorable reports semi-annually on this case. Would it be possible to visit the Daughter, Mrs. Morris Greenberg, and acquaint her with the facts, that should deportation measures be taken against her Mother, that despite the fact that she is married to an American Citizen that she would also be subject to that deportation. This would perhaps force an issue and hasten their arrangement for the bond that we are trying to secure. You may also recall to Mrs. Greenberg my conversation with her when she called on me while in El Paso. She promised to take care of her mother and sisters and secure bond to replace the one existing at present. You may also tell her that unless they comply with our request, we shall refuse to intercede in their behalf at Immigration Headquarters.

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

Since our letter to you of January 30, we have communicated with Mrs. Greenberg a number of times without success. We have also spoken with Simon Aronowitz but he too shows little interest. They state that they have spoken with a lawyer and with some bondsman here who believe no bond necessary.

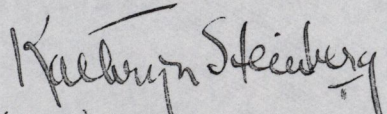

Simon has requested that you write directly to him telling him what you want. We have tried to explain the matter to him innumerable times but he continues to insist that a bond is not necessary. Perhaps it would be advisable for you to communicate with him or with Mrs. Greenberg to explain the necessity of the bond. They can arrange to obtain it at the National Surety Co. Irving agreed to pay the cost many months ago but may not be able to do so now as he has changed jobs and moved to Dayton, Ohio. If he is unable to pay, we are positive the remainder of the family can manage it if they can be made to realize the seriousness of the situation.

Please let us know what plans you make with the family.

Dear Miss Razovsky;

In reply to yours of May 11. can only say that this case is causing St. Louis and El Paso plenty of trouble, and as for it being closed I am afraid it is going to be an indefinitely open case with us. However, I do not see where New York can help in the matter so the case may be considered closed from your end of the line.

In re: Aronowitz Family.

We have corresponded several times with the Field Executive here of the National Council of Jewish Women, asking for a report on this family, as a report has been demanded by the Department of Labor here in El Paso. They have shown me your last letter of December 21st, 1931, written to Miss Cecilia Razovsky, National Council of Jewish Women at New York.

Will you please immediately get in touch with the Aronowitz family, or some member of it, and say to them that if a proper report cannot be made to the Inspector in Charge at El Paso with reference to this family, that the bondsmen will request the Inspector in Charge to have the entire Aronowitz family picked up for deportation.

This is the only alternative left, and this matter must be given immediate attention if these people desire to remain longer in the United States.

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

In re: Aronowitz family.

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 19th on the above subject.

We have written to the Jewish Social Service Bureau at St. Louis, asking for information with reference to these people.

The writer notes the following statement in your letter:

"This case is closed to us, and I would suggest that you communicate with St. Louis."

This is a rather peculiar statement to be made in connection with this matter. The case was not one undertaken by me except as an assistance and aid to you and your organization. You secured the signatures of men in El Paso to a bond covering the requirements of the Immigration Department and subject to forfeiture if these requirements are not fulfilled. As far as you and the National Council of Jewish Women are concerned, a duty devolves on you to carry this case through to final conclusion, regardless of the time and trouble necessary to have it finally disposed of. This duty is not owing by you to your organization or to the Aronowitz family, but to the signers of the bond, who, voluntarily agreed to help people in distress through your organization.

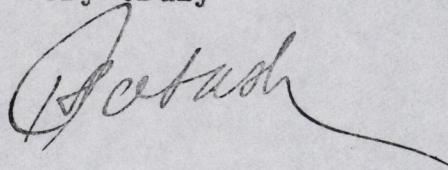

The writer feels that this matter should be called forcibly to your attention so that you might realize the seriousness of the duty you have assumed, and if you do not fully realize it and are not willing to cooperate in the matter whenever the Department of Immigration asks for information, the writer

#2 - Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,

believes the matter should be taken up with the National Council for their review and assistance.

Last year we notified these attorneys that we were getting no co-operation from St. Louis and suggested that they should correspond direct and perhaps they would get better action.

In December we got a request again from them for a report and we cited them to our letter telling them that the case was not open to us and for them to communicate direct. In reply we received the enclosed.

In reference to a communication from you on Nov. 9, 1931 in which you say "I am wondering how long one should continue to keep up this farce." we are of the same opinion and if St. Louis cannot put this over we surely cannot from this end of the line.

What is your opinion in the matter?

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

In Miss Razovsky's absence, I am taking it upon myself to answer your letter on Aronowitz and write to St. Louis regarding same.

The situation is serious and in reality this family has brought on their own difficulty for they have had ample time and there is no question that financially they could have arranged to take over the bond.

You seem to feel that St. Louis has been largely to blame for all of this. I can not wholly agree with you as they have made very desperate efforts to make this family assume their own responsibility. You will recall reading St. Louis' report that was sent to you January 12, 1932, in which they showed that efforts had been made to have this family assume its own responsibility.

My criticism throughout would be that not enough stress has been laid upon making Mrs. Aronowitz become a citizen. Had they done this the present problem would not have to be met. I am going to write to St. Louis today and suggest that they take a final and desperate step - and that is, threaten the family. I am suggesting that formal letters be written to the two older sons and the married daughter, telling them that this is their last opportunity for having their family avail themselves of the privilege of staying in the United States. If they do not assume their responsibility by accepting this bond, they should prepare for deportation, and then suggest that they have their passports in readiness when the government sends someone to call upon them.

As a rule I do not approve of this method, but in this case I can not see that there is anything left to be done. I will advise you what response I get from St. Louis.

Re; Aronowitz Family

Dear Miss Steinberg;

It is to be regretted that the above family should be constantly brought to our attention through the unfortunate situation that arises due to the bond, that was signed for them upon their arrival into the U.S.

We asked Mr. Potash attorney for the bondsmen to take the matter up in a legal way in order to release this bond. Instead of doing so he is trying to hold the Council of Jewish Women and myself responsible for this bond, and also, for assisting these people into the U.S. Whereas, the Council of Jewish Women had nothing to do with these people entering the U.S. but contacted them after they were admitted. We have tried in every way possible to satisfy the Dept. of Immigration by getting the reports required by them but realizing that it is humanly impossible to continue with this case indefinitely we were using every means possible to release the bondsmen.

Any advise from you that will assist us in bringing this case to a close will be appreciated.

RE: Aronowitz Family

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

We received your letter requesting our advice as to what to do further with this family. We have discussed the situation with Mrs. Fliegle and with Mrs. Nathan Kohn who is interested in Americanization work here.

Mrs. Fliegle has agreed to make every effort to obtain her citizenship papers and to encourage Mrs. Greenberg and Henry to do the same. We are making arrangements for Mrs. Fliegle and Mrs. Greenberg to apply immediately for their first papers. Henry has his first papers and we shall see him this week to discuss making arrangements about his final papers.

We have given Mrs. Fliegle information about Americanization classes, since she does not read or write English. She has promised to go this week and we shall learn immediately if she has done so.

We understand that Mrs. Fliegle and Mrs. Greenberg will have to wait two years after obtaining their first papers before applying for their second. Will the bondsman agree to wait these two years if we promise to make every effort to encourage the family to become citizens? If our reports are not favorable, kindly let us know what kind you want and we shall try to send them. Perhaps if all this is carried out matters will run more smoothly.

For our information will you please tell us on what members of the family this bond is held.

My dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

What are we going to do about this case? Certainly our organization cannot assume responsibility for the bond. If the bondsmen press you too hard, I think the only thing to do is to go ahead and ask the immigration officials to release them from the bond. Then it will be up to the Aronowitz's themselves to furnish bond or to make such plans as they can under the circumstances. If you think it is advisable for us to write to the bondsmen direct from our National office, we shall be glad to do so, explaining where our responsibility ends and what they can do to protect themselves if they are no longer willing to carry the burden of a bond for this family.

Re; Clara Aronowitz

Dear Miss Razovsky;

Just what would you advise with reference to the bond I have been working on for the past two years. I have written to St. Louis asking them to bring pressure to bear on the family so they will assume the bond so we can release the El Paso signors. By doing this the Council in El Paso will be released of any further difficulties with this case.

Regardless of how the Immigration Dept feels this family is not deportable because the mother is Russian and the children are German and they could never get a passport.

Re Aronowitz

Dear Miss Steinberg;

Replying to yours of April 24th. with ref. to your question the bond is for Mrs. A. and the three girls, (Regina Frieda and Matilda) also Henry. As to the two year question of the bond if you could bring pressure to bear that the should assume the bond it would releive the unpleasent situation that exists here at the present time and would also releive you of any further responsibility in the case because we in the Immigration work know that these people are not deportable, because of the various countries of their birth.

I have reached this decision and only this one that we want to release the bondsmen here and it cannot be done without them assuming the bond.
