Re: Aaron Margolis

My dear Miss Razovsky:

In response to your inquiry of the 5th instant, please be advised that we shall be glad to instruct our Committee to secure the birth record of the above-named, who left the U.S.S.R. in 1914. However the police record which you request will not be obtainable.

We presume that we may expect reimbursement from Mr. Margolis for whatever expense our Committee defrays in securing and certifying the birth record. The sum usually expended for a document of this kind is approximately five dollars.

If the birth certificate will serve no purpose, unless accompanied by the police record, please advise us.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Perlman:-

This is in reply to yours of August 22nd with reference to the birth certificate of Aaron Margolis.

Inclosed you will please find $5.00 for the expense of that document. The Police certificate can be waived if the Red Cross will send an official letter stating that it is unobtainable. That letter should be attached to the birth certificate.

Thanking you for your cooperation,
