Dear Mrs. Blacher:

We have your communication with the enclosed affidavits but regret to inform you that you probably misunderstood our letter with the enclosed memorandum. We distinctly said in our letter that you must attach to the affidavits such financial statements as indicated in the enclosed memorandum. Although you sent us the affidavits, you failed to enclose the financial statements. We are sending you a copy of your affidavit. Please send with this paper such financial statements corroborating with the statements you made in the affidavit.

With reference to the affidavits drawn by Barbara Blacher, we are returning all her statements. The note mark should not be inserted. That part should be left blank. The same thing applies to her affidavits regarding the corroborating financial statements. We are enclosing new affidavits for the declarant.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Blacker:-

I am in receipt of your Yiddish letter, and after having it translated to me, I wish to state as follows:-

It is impossible to give you any advice with reference to your brother until I get a full history of the case. You say that you tried to get him in. It will be necessary for you to let me know how and when and where. Is the boy at present going to school? If so, he could be admitted as a student, providing you agree to send him to an accredited school. In any event you must have affidavits drawn up signed by your husband and self.

If you can use the same method as that set out by the Prager's, I would advise that you and your husband come to El Paso and have our Secretary draw up the affidavits and work out a possible means to get this case through. We are always anxious to give our service.

Awaiting your reply, I am

Dear Sirs-

The originals of the inclosed documents will be presented to you by our brother, Chaim Bartnowski, who will apply to you for a quota number and visa to permanently enter the United States.

It is our desire to have our brother, above mentioned, to come to the United States and make his home with us in Midland, Texas. Our reason for appealing to you is because we wish to give him the advantages of a higher education and the privileges of religious and political freedom.

We are well able to receive and care for him, and guarantee that he will never become a public charge.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Blacher:

I am in receipt of letters of recommendation, all of which are very good, but not sufficient to make the proper presentation to the Consul. They require facts about your financial status. Your tax receipts are inadequate. I would therefore suggest that you appeal to the Tax Assessor and ask him to make a notarized statement of the property and the assessments on all your possessions. I must also have your income tax report for the past year. The letters from the bank make no mention of your deposits. It is absolutely necessary that you show a fair balance incorporated in the bank letter. You must also have a Dun & Bradstreet's report.

If you will get the above mentioned papers and re-write the letter enclosed on your own stationery, signing same as shown on the letter before a Notary, also sign the enclosed affidavit, and return them to me, I will assemble all the papers.

A suggestion which will carry weight is that you place $1,000.00 to the credit of this boy's account in your bank for his educational expense upon his arrival in the United States and a letter from the bank to support this transfer. I would strongly suggest that you take this measure and think it will expedite matters with the American Consul.

Attention: Mrs. Zlobovsky

Dear Madame,-

In connection with the application for admission into the United States of Chaim Bartnowski from Poland, Mrs. Barbara Blacher, his sister has asked me to explain that the attached papers show the school record of the said Chaim Bartnowski and a statement from the chief governing officer of his district indicating that his morals are good and that he is a law abiding citizen.

Under date of Nov. 17th Dun & Bradstreet have informed Mr. Blacher that they carry no financial report on him as an individual, and that if they did it would be necessary for them to forward such a report direct to the American Consul. Under date of Nov. 16th I wrote Dun & Bradstreet asking them to send an attested statement direct to me but have not yet had time to hear from. Their reply to me will probably be the same as they sent Mr. Blacher.

While I am not familiar with the requirements of the department in matters of immigration I believe the financial showing made by Mr. Blacher in the affidavits from bank officials and taxing authorities of this city should be sufficient, especially since any financial rating given by Dun & Bradstreet is based almost entirely on guess and conjecture.

Mr. Blacher informs me that he will place a deposit of $1000.00 to the applicant's credit in a local bank if necessary when it is indicated that he will be admitted to The United States.

Very truly yours,

Dear Friends:

Inclosed are two envelopes, one to be sent to the American Consul in Warsaw, the letter already addressed, and the other goes to your brother. You will please write the following instructions to him:

To attach to the inclosed documents a birth certificate; the original and duplicate,

A letter from the Police Department, and a valid affidavit.

With all of these documents tell him to present himself to the American Consul in Warsaw and appeal to the said Consul to grant him a visa.

It would perhaps carry weight if you would deposit $100 to the credit of this young man's account for his use upon his arrival in the United States. If such a measure is possible, get a letter from the bank to that effect and attach it under the first letter of the documents to be mailed to the American Consul. I would further suggest that you send all of this airmail registered to both your brother and the American Consul.

If there is any additional information you may desire, please call on me.

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky,

I received your letter today asking me whether my brother received the visa. No, he has not. The Council wrote him that our twenty wasn't big enough so my husband deposited it in his name $2,500" and we sent him a letter from the bank showing the deposit and we told him to write to the Council. Dear Mrs. Blacher:—

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th ult., and contents noted.

At the time your papers were sent you, I recommended that you make a deposit in favor of your brother, which apparently you failed to do. The letter from the bank should have gone direct to the Consul General in Warsaw, Poland, and from your letter I judge it was sent to your brother.

I would advise at this time that you write direct to the American Consul General in Warsaw, Poland, asking him to please give your brother's application favorable consideration. Send this letter airmail registered, and enclose coupons for return airmail reply. You can get those coupons at the Post Office.

Please keep me posted.

Mrs. Eudie Blacher
Midland, Texas

Dear Mrs. Blacher:

The reason for the delay in answering your letter is because I neither read Polish nor Yiddish and had to seek translation for which I paid one dollar. You should have no difficulty in meeting the requirements of the American Consul.

Numbers 2, 3, and 4 pertain to your financial past and present and it is necessary that you furnish documentary evidence showing your business dealings and income and a statement from the bank showing your deposits and drawings for the past year.

Number 9 is asking for your income tax return certified by the collector of internal revenue. You should have no difficulty in securing such a document from the Treasury Department. Number 4 asks about what financial support your brother has received from you. If you have given him any support you would naturally have cancelled bank checks or receipts of postal money orders which you can send to the boy to present to the American Consul.

It would expedite matters if you will write to me in English and if you will have further Polish documents send them to me in translation. If I can help you further in this matter please let me know. Please send check for $1 to cover translation charges.

Dear Mrs. Zlovovsky;

I have not written you in some time as I had nothing but today I received a letter saying my brother had been turned down because he did not have sufficient guarantee. We already have $2500 on deposit for him in the bank and would you please write the Consul as soon as possible and find out how much is expected.

His papers will expire soon and in six months he will have to sign up for the army so whatever can be done has to be done soon. How do I renew his papers?

Would it be any easier or quicker if we tried to get him in as a tourist and then after he was over we could find some legal way for him to stay.

I am inclosing an addresses and stamped envelope to the Consul and I would appreciate it if you would write immediately and also tell him that we would be able to take care of him if he was over here, and to please OK his Visa.

Re: Chaim Bartnowski

To the Honorable American Consul,
Warsaw, Poland.

Dear Sir:

In a recent letter from Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Blacher, of Midland, Texas, they asked this office to intercede in behalf of their brother, for whom they made application for entry into the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Blacher are well known to this office as honorable and dependable people, and we wish to assure you that they will comply with their obligations as set forth in their affidavit, which no doubt you have in your files.

In appealing for favorable consideration in this case, it is to insure the happiness of Mrs. Blacher who is much concerned over the welfare of her brother. They plan to educate him and make a worth-while future citizen of him, having already set aside a fund of $2500 on deposit in the Bank of Midland, for his use.

We are informed that quota numbers are not available at this time, which may not apply to this case, but if it does, would it be possible to give this boy a Student's visa to enable him to go to school in the United States?

Thanking you for your early advice, I am

Dear Mrs. Zlozsky:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of letter which has been written today to Honorable R. E. Thomason by Colonel John Perkins, a lawyer of Midland.

He feels certain that Mr. Thomason will be very glad to render any assistance that he can and we are requesting that you be kind enough to call on Mr. Thomason for that assistance.

Midland, Texas
September 30, 1938

P.S.

I have made out all the necessary papers that have been requested from the American Consul.

We have added $2,500.00 more, which makes a total of $5,000.00 in my brother's name, so please get in touch with the Congressman and I am sure he will be of great assistance to you.

I am sending you the duplicate of the Congressman's letter. Please call on him. He will be expecting you.

I am sure you are well acquainted with my brother's case and you will know what to advise him to do. I would certainly appreciate your immediate attention because he has already wasted so much time and especially under the circumstances now existing in Europe.

I would greatly appreciate an answer from you as I was very disappointed when I didn't get a reply to my last letter.

I would consider it a personal favor if the Congressman would write a letter to the American Consul in Warsaw.

Your Friend,
September 23rd, 1938,

In Re: Chaim Bartnowski, a Citizen of Poland—Entrance into the United States as a student.

Honorable R. E. Thomason,
United States Congressman,
El Paso, Texas.

Dear Ewing:

The above named young man is the brother of Mrs. Eddie Blacher of Midland, Texas. The young man has been trying to come to America to attend school, he being now seventeen years of age. He has made two applications and was rejected on the first application because of insufficient security. Following this Mr. Eddie Blacher put up $2500.00 in cash to guarantee the expense which the young man would incur while living here and attending school. It seems that this amount was not considered sufficient and his entrance was again rejected.

Mr. Blacher agrees to put up additional security for this purpose.

We are writing you requesting that you render every assistance you can in securing the admission of the young man, and in this connection we are asking Mrs. Zlevsky of El Paso, Texas, who has been conducting the correspondence on behalf of the young man to call on you and solicit your assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Blacher are citizens of Midland, and Eddie is the owner of the Palace Drug Store. He is a good citizen, attends to his own business, and is well thought of by all of us who know him. His wife is an estimable lady, and the acquaintance which we have is very favorable.

We assure you that we will appreciate any assistance you can give.

Yours Sincerely,

[Signature]

JOHN PERKINS.

Dear Mrs. Blacher:-

I am just in receipt of your letter of the 23rd inst., and wish to inform you that on September 17th I wrote the American Consul in behalf of your brother. In this letter I appealed to him that should quota numbers be unavailable at this time, to grant a change of status and permit him to come to the United States on a Student's visa.

As soon as I hear from the American Consul, I will notify you. I will call on Congressman R. E. Thompson in the near future.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.

PZ:LG
American Consulate General
Warsaw, Poland, October 20, 1938.

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
National Council of Jewish Women,
El Paso, Texas.

Madam:

The Consulate General acknowledges the receipt of your letter of September 21, 1938, referring to the immigration visa case of Mr. Chaim Bortnowski.

The records of the Consulate General show that Mr. Bortnowski is registered as an intending immigrant of the nonpreference category, and has submitted the personal documents required by Section 7(c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, which appear to be in order. He has not, however, been invited to call in person to execute a formal visa application, since the evidence now on file does not establish his admissibility to the United States under the provision of Section 5 of the Immigration Act of 1917 which excludes persons who are likely to become public charges.

The Consulate General has recently written to Mr. Bortnowski suggesting that he submit a copy of Mr. Eddie Blacher's last income tax return, certified by the appropriate collector of internal revenue or the Treasury Department as a true copy of the return filed, and a credit report of Mr. Blacher's business, prepared by a reputable mercantile agency.

If Mr. Blacher wishes to submit more definite evidence concerning his income and financial resources, either in response to the suggestions which have been made in this letter or evidence of another nature, the Consulate General will give Mr. Bortnowski's case further consideration.

Very truly yours,

Marcel E. Malige
American Consul
November 8, 1938.

Mrs. Eddie Blacher,
Midland, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Blacher:

I am just in receipt of a reply from the Consulate General, Warsaw, Poland, and he asks for the following papers:

A copy of Mr. Blacher’s last Income tax return certified by the Collector of Internal Revenue, or the Treasury Department, and a Credit Report of Mr. Blacher’s business, prepared by a mercantile agency, such as Dun & Bradstreet.

He also suggests that you submit more definite evidence concerning the income and financial resources. A letter from the bank and a statement showing your deposits and withdrawals for the past six months will carry weight. Send these papers to me, and I will forward them to the American Consul with another letter.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Dear Mrs. Zlabyosky:

I received your letter and all the papers requested by the Consulate General, Warsaw, Poland had been forwarded to him several days before receiving your letter.

The copy of Mr. Blacher's last Income tax return certified by the Collector of Internal Revenue at Dallas and also the Credit Report of Mr. Blacher's business, prepared by Dun and Bradstreet of Fort Worth, Texas was forwarded by themselves straight to the Consulate General in Warsaw.

More money has been added to the account put up in my brother's name, and I sincerely hope this is all the information necessary, as I am very anxious to have him here.

Perhaps a personal letter from you to the Consulate General will help considerably.

I would consider it a personal favor if you will acknowledge this letter.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
November 19, 1938.

Re: Shlomo Bartnowski, Chaim.

Honorable Marcel E. Malige,
American Consul,
Warsaw, Poland.

Upon receipt of your letter of October 20th, I wrote Mrs. Eddie Blacher, sister of the boy we are interested in.

She now informs me that the additional documents required as outlined in your letter have been forwarded direct to you.

Trusting with this information you will now be in position to accept the application of Chaim Bartnowski favorably, and grant him a visa to enter the United States so that he may further his education and make his home with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blacher, I am

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.
El Paso, Texas,
December 1st, 1939.

Mrs. Eddie Blacher,
Midland, Texas.

For Services rendered (Chaim Bartnowski case) ........... $75.00

In view of the fact this case has come to a successful termination,
I will appreciate a check for the above by return mail.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,

Dear Mrs. Glabovsky,

I am in receipt of a statement for $75.00 "for services rendered". I would appreciate your advising me the nature of the services rendered.

I paid you $10.00 for making out the affidavits, which seems to me most sufficient for "services rendered."

During my visit with you there was nothing said about any charges other than the one I paid. As a matter of fact, I had hired a lawyer to take care of all correspondence for me. The only help that I had in bringing my brother to this country was through the HIAS in New York.

Having that the "bill" was sent in error, I remain

Very truly yours

Mr. Eddie Glacken
El Paso, Texas,
December 4, 1939.

Mrs. Eddie Blacher,
Midland, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Blachers:

In acknowledging receipt of your letter of the 2nd inst.,
I wish to state that statement rendered was not in error. The $10.00 sent originally did not even cover the expense involved such as stenographic service, photostats, postage, etc.

When you first called upon me for consultation and asked me to handle your brother’s case, it was after your own attorneys and other Organizations had failed. At that time you distinctly said that you would send me a check when the case was completed. I was very much hurt when you did not even give me the courtesy of writing when your brother arrived. It was through the American Consul in Warsaw that I received notification that the visa had been issued to your brother.

My file shows that it was due to my advice and efforts that the American Consul in Warsaw accepted your brother’s application. As a matter of fact I have letters in my possession from your attorneys asking my advice in the culmination of the case.

Therefore I feel that statement for services rendered is in order. By way of information, I wish to say that this money will be used for those who are less fortunate than your brother.

Thanking you to let check come forward, I am

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zabovsky.
Dear Mrs. Sloborsky,

In close you will please send a dollar which I think you very much for your trouble.

I started working on the papers today, and I hope that this time everything will work out all right.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Eddie Blacher

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

REGARDING APPLICATION FOR IMMIGRATION VISAS

In addition to affidavits of support, American Consuls usually require corroborative proof of the statements contained in the affidavits, in connection with applications for immigration visas:

Some of the documents asked for are:

1) If in business, a statement from Dun and Bradstreet and a certified auditor's statement, indicating income, investment, assets, liabilities, etc.

2) If employed, a letter from the employer, witnessed by a notary public, indicating the occupation, salary, how long employed, the permanency of the position and general responsibility.

3) Statements from life insurance companies as to amounts of insurance carried and their cash surrender value.

4) If monetary help was sent to the person or persons in whose behalf the affidavit is made, a statement from the bank listing the remittances.

5) Statements from banks, showing savings, when accounts were opened, listing the deposits and withdrawals - and statements from commercial banks showing available credits, the discharge of obligations, etc.

6) If income taxes paid, proof thereof.

7) If possessing real property, tax receipts.

8) Proof of relationship to person or persons abroad. Statements from two individuals certifying as to the relationship and witnessed by a notary public, are acceptable.

9) Letters of recommendation from prominent citizens, organizations affiliated with, business men, testifying as to character and responsibility.

10) A letter addressed to the American Consul asking for favorable consideration of the application for the visa, summarizing the reasons why the applicant will not become a public charge, if admitted, and indicating the extent of assuming the responsibility for support, i.e., whether temporarily or indefinitely, and in what way.

The foregoing is merely an indication of the kind of evidence which has been found useful. As many of the above statements possible should be obtained and attached to affidavits of support.
