September 4th, 1930.

Mrs. Theresa Cohen Whitman,
31 Dwight St.,
Brookline, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Whitman:-

Re-Rothburd.

In reply to your letter of August 28th, so far we have been unable to get further information on the addresses of the families in Boston other than that of the brother at 24 St. Mary's Street. The daughter is very reluctant about acquainting her father, the Rabbi, about their financial straits, and would prefer getting what little assistance possible from Mr. Rothburd's people. Any assistance rendered by them will be appreciated.

Thanking you for your assistance, I am

Yours very truly,

Chairman, Service for Foreign Borne.
