My dear Mrs Zlabowsky:

Against all my expectations, I am now employed in the aviation after all, Having found a fine position with the United Air Lines in their research engineering department, doing the work for which I feel better fit than for any other. I was even given a tentative contract, and so naturally I begin to think of bringing over my family now, and therefore filled out the enclosed forms in order to enable my wife to make application for entry into this country under the preferential immigration quota.

As this form has to be passed on by Mr. I.J. Perlmutter for verification of my legal entry into the States, I would greatly appreciate it indeed, If you would be so kind as to grant me your assistance again, looking this form over as to its correctness particularly with regard to the anticipated arrival of another child whom you find mentioned under No. 3.

Naturally, I hope that it will be possible to have the papers drawn up mentioning the as yet unborn child in this manner, as my wife would like to leave Germany as soon as her physical condition makes this possible, so that I am anxious to avoid any delay on account of this technicality.

If in your opinion, the form is in order as is, would you please be kind enough to submit it for me to the Immigration Service for their action on it? I hope you dont mind my imposing on you again in this manner, and I want to thank you again for your past help and for anything you might be able to do in this matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Albert Gail

Dear Mr. Gail:-

The application blanks are correct, including the expected child. I would advise that you make affidavit of support and a letter from your employer recommending you. Send all papers by airmail at once, and advise your wife to appear before the Consul immediately upon receipt of your letter.

If she applies before the baby is born, I think it will simplify matters for her, even though she may remain in Germany until after the birth of the baby.

Any further information that you may require, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.
