Mrs. Sam Rosenberg,
510 Randolph Street,
El Paso, Texas.

El Paso, Texas,
October 3, 1936.

Dear Sister Julia:-

I am enclosing affidavits from Sam for you to present to the Consul and ask him to please grant you the privilege of coming either for a visit or permanently to the United States.

While I realize you are needed at home because of your property holdings, but we are very lonesome for you, and feel sure that Uncle and Auntie will be able to spare you for about a year.

I want you to go the American Consul in Kaunas, and ask him to please grant you the necessary documents for your entry, assuring him that you will abide by the laws of the United States, and will in no way take advantage of the privileges granted you.

Awaiting your coming with the keenest anticipation, I am, with fondest wishes for a quick re-union,

As ever,

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION

for

New York City, N. Y.

Dear Miss Razovsky:-

Will you please assist in getting affidavits from Mrs. L. Obedin, 1018 East 163rd Street, New York City? This affidavit is for the purpose of appealing to the American Consul in Kaunas, Lithuania for her niece, Julia Philipowsky, now living in Kybartai, Lithuania, to be permanently admitted into the United States.

I am told by Miss Philipowsky's sister, Mrs. Sam Rosenberg, of El Paso, Texas, that in addition to the above mentioned relative, there are several other aunts and uncles who are financially able to furnish such affidavits. Mrs. Rosenberg does not have their various addresses, but Mrs. Obedin can furnish you with this information.

Thanking you for your assistance, I am

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.

Julia

We were unable to locate Mrs.L.Obedin, aunt of Julia Philipowsky.

We shall be glad to make another attempt to find her if you are able to obtain a better address.

In the meanwhile we are closing our case.
