To the Honorable,

Dear Sir:-

We stand ready to assist him in every way, and we hope you will grant him the necessary quota number and visa, which will enable him to come here.

Thanking you for your consideration, we are

Dear Brother:

When you receive these papers, we want you to follow our instructions. You must get a passport and in order to do so you may tell the Lithuanian authorities that you are just going on a short visit to Germany or any other Country that may suit your purpose. You must also have a birth certificate, a police report and your military discharge. When you have those papers, you will attach them to the enclosed documents and present yourself to the American Consul in Kaunas, Lithuania. You will have to show that you have money of your own, about $2,000.00 American money will be sufficient. When the Consul asks you what you intend to do, tell him you are interested in farming and would like to make a scientific study in that field, that you have no intention of going to work since your brothers are well able to support you, besides having money of your own and that your parents are well to do and can always furnish you with necessary funds. You will also tell the Consul that in addition to your two brothers you have two sisters who are well to do, and living in El Paso, Texas; that it is your desire to be with your sisters and brothers. They will ask you if you are a communist, be sure that your answer is no. Tell him that you would like to become a citizen of a country like the United States which gives you religious and political freedom. Do not hesitate in giving your answers. Be straight-forward and to the point. I think with these instructions and with the papers that you have to show the American Consul will be glad to look favorably upon your application.

My dear Mrs. Zlatovsky:

Your letter dated June 30th, addressed to Miss Henoeh, reached our office July 5th, a day after the Queen Mary arrived in New York.

We have checked through the records, and find that Mr. Girkas Bendalinas arrived on the Queen Mary yesterday, destined to Mrs. Bendalinas of 216 South Oregon Street, El Paso, Texas; and was met at the pier by a friend, Mr. Nathan Rosen of 41 Carlton Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey.

The representative of the Southern Pacific Railroad was at the pier, also, with a ticket and funds for Mr. Bendalinas; and so he was well taken care of.

In the future, might we suggest that a letter addressed air-mail, special delivery, be used when the docking time is so close. Had we had this letter before, our worker would have been able to have been of further assistance to Mr. Bendalinas.

Sincerely yours,

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN
