Most Esteemed Lady,

Gracefully do I beg leave to extend to you most noble lady my sincerest thanks for your tender feelings as a "Mothering Angel" towards my dear friendless Sister.

Indeed is your friendly interest in such grand cause noteworthy and quite commendable for there is nowhere in the Holy Script my good Lady, we can find a grander and more admirable command than to assist & love the Stranger in our midst. - My dear Sister nomadically forlorn amongst strangers in a strange land and your kind lady taking an interest in her welfare is simply "you are a God-send to her" for which I can assure you our fullest appreciation and so do I pray that our Merciful God will bless you and all your loved one with a long life complete, full of happiness and great joy. I am sincerely yours most gratefully, Respectfully D. Hechter

We have been taking care of your sister Shule. She is now working but does not make sufficient to support herself. The C. has been paying 12 per month towards her maintenance and at this time we feel that you could assist us financially in taking care of your sister. There is a man in Wink Texas who is interested in Shule and would like to marry her. However she can not come into the U.S. through this port because the law demands a residence of 2 yrs. in Mex. However she could after her marriage go to Cuba and be admitted through that port immediately. I would like you to look into this matter and if you can furnish the means we will try to assist her. We will take care of the filing of the papers etc. We await your early reply,

Rabbi Jon Hechter,
304 East North Street,
Greenville, S.C.

Dear Rabbi Hechter:

In connection with your sister, Mrs. Belle Hechter's request for admittance into the United States, the following facts must be submitted to you:

Your sister married Mr. Luis Solderf before several witnesses but without a religious or civil ceremony. This, as you know renders her marriage legal from the Jewish point of view. However, the American Consulate aware of the above fact interprets such a union as an irregular one, and the child, Joseph, born from this union, as illegitimate. Furthermore, your sister's husband left her, and is still living. The reason for her reporting him dead is due to her extreme anguish and unhappiness over the whole affair.

If you, knowing these facts in the case, are still willing to assume responsibility for her and her child, kindly write me a letter in your own handwriting (Yiddish or English) stating therein that you know such facts, but are still willing to assume responsibility. This we must submit as evidence at the request of the American Consulate here.

You will also have to make another affidavit as per suggested enclosure.

Kindly rush these documents so that we may strike while the iron is hot.

Faithfully yours,

Greenville, S.C.

In July of 1936 the Lithuanian Consul in Chicago renewed a Passport for Shule Gechterite. In taking up the old passport he failed to give the history of her birth in the new document. At this time I am greatly in need of a birth certificate for said Shule Gechterite, and wonder if you can secure for me such a document from the Lithuanian Consul since no doubt he has the old document in his files.

I do not know if such a request is regular, but I seem to be unable to get the document from Lithuania, and unless I can get it within the next two weeks I fear I shall lose this case. It is the only thing that is holding up the acceptance of her application.

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

We have just been advised by the Lithuanian Consulate that the foregoing was born in the District of Utena, Lithuania, in the year of 1900. A definite birth date is not given in the old passport.

The secretary to the Consul suggested that in view of the fact that this information was omitted from the new passport, they would be glad to make the necessary corrections and return the passport to you. That office is unable to issue a birth certificate.

In order to avoid delay, please send the passport and your letter directly to Mr. P. Dauzvardis, Consul of Lithuania, Lithuanian Consulate, 100 Belview Place, Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Dauzvardis' secretary stated that she would give the matter immediate attention and return the passport to you.

Honorable Sir:-

Upon advice from our Chicago Office,
I am asking you to assist me in securing a birth certificate for the above subject.

We have the following information which may help in securing the aforementioned documents:

"She was born about December 28, 1900 in the town of Dobeik, District of Utena, Lithuania.
Her father's name was Schebsell Nisen Gechter.
The mother's name is, Yoche Roise Shapiro
Gechter."

Miss Gechterite makes the statement that during the time of the war the town in which she lived was totally destroyed by fire, therefore it would be impossible to secure records from there.

We will be glad to pay any expense attached to securing the birth certificate, and upon receipt of your statement, we will be pleased to mail you our check to cover.

Reverend Don Hechter,

Dear Sir:-

After months of waiting I succeeded in getting the birth certificate for your sister, and with the papers complete, I presented the case to the American Consul. She was asked if she could read and write. Her answer was yes. She was then granted a visa after receiving the quota number from Lithuania, which we applied for by cable. We then proceeded to the Immigration Department and they gave her a literacy test and found her illiterate. For that reason she was excluded.

I am now appealing to you to use every influence in the Labor Department in Washington to grant her admission into the United States. This case will go to the Labor Department, the name on the papers is Sale Gechterite, and it is entirely within the power of the Labor Department in Washington to grant her admission or refuse it. If she is refused, she will have no hope of ever entering the United States.

The expense incurred on this case up to the present time amounts to $50.00. This includes $20.00 for visas, $15.00 cable, $5.00 for birth certificate and other incidentals which were necessary such as photostats and other legal documents. I now have the sum of $50.00 which I will hold until the case is decided upon.

May I suggest that you appeal to the ~~Minister~~ ^{Minister} to assist you in this matter?

Dear Miss Razovsky:-

The inclosed copy is self explanatory. I am very anxious to get this case admitted into the United States, mainly because the American Consul feels that he is correct in granting the visas for Sule Gechterite and her child, claiming that she can read and write Yiddish haltingly but understandingly. Furthermore this case has been a source of worry to the Council of Jewish Women for the past nine years, and it is about time that her brother assumes the responsibility. Please use your influence.

Re: Miss Hechter

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky,

Your letter of September 13th arrived when I was away from the city, and the matter was not taken up. I note your letter of the same date to Rev. Don Hechter, and in the final sentence you tell him to appeal to the Hias. Our office did not take any steps in connection with your letter because of that last sentence.

If the Hias is handling the case, we certainly shall not interfere. However, I shall find out the status of the case when I am in Washington, and discuss it with Mr. Hershfield of the Hias.

I am sure that you will understand that if you refer a case to another organization, we cannot duplicate. I would suggest that in the future you refer such cases to us, and if we feel that we should call in some other organization, we will do so.

Sincerely yours,

Cecilia Razovsky

Re: Sule Gechter File #3038/510

Dear Mr. Hershfield:

I am sending to you the enclosed copy of the record of the Board of Special Inquiry, with the letter from the department to me. Will you please submit your brief in triplicate, and use your every influence for a favorable decision in this case.

This woman has been under our supervision for the past eight years, and her life has been a most unhappy one. Her brother in Greenville, S. C., is anxious to make amends for his past negligence and give her and her child a comfortable home. She is a good woman, and the only reason she was excluded, as you will see in the record, is because of illiteracy.

The American Counsel, after a thorough examination of the case, declared her not illiterate, and granted her a Lithuanian number and visa. It is requested that you return the enclosed record intact. You may keep my letter in your files until the termination of the case.

Thanking you,

Yours very truly,

National Council of Jewish Women

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

We are pleased to advise you that, as the result of our argument before the Department's Board of Review in the case of Sule Gechter, D. L. 55927/840, a decision has just been rendered directing that the case be reopened for a further literacy test and that she be given opportunity to read from newspapers and periodicals or other matter in common use.

We pointed out to the Board of Review that the test given to her, being extracts from the Bible, was not the test contemplated by law as to words in common use. You should now advise Mrs. Gechter that she will shortly be given a new literacy test, that she should not be nervous about the matter, and that, if she cannot read extracts from the Bible, she will be given a test from newspapers, periodicals, etc. This should make it possible for her to pass the literacy test.

After your local authorities have received this decision from the Department and after the new literacy test has been had, please advise us so that we may give the matter our further attention at that time at the Department.

Yours very truly,

Dear Rabbi Hechter:-

About six weeks ago, I engaged a teacher to instruct your sister in reading and writing. I told Shule to write to you to send money to pay the teacher. but to date I have received no check from you. I will therefore ask you to send at least $50.00 at the earliest possible moment to defray the incurred expenses.

Of the money which remained from the expense of visas, etc., I have been forced to give your sister money for her support and that sum has dwindled down to about $25.00. Her case will be reopened in the next two weeks and I will need additional money for further expenses. I am expecting you to send a check for about $50.00 to take care of that. We will do everything in our power to get her admitted into the United States.

Yours very truly,

In response to your telegram of Dec. 3/37, wish to thank you for the kind services that you rendered to my sister in helping her arrival to U.S.A.

With regards to my sister, I wish to state that as much as I would like to have her as my guest, I am not in a position to do so because I have no permanent home at present, and for the time being it would be best for her to sojourn in El Paso for the next three weeks until I make my home somewhere. Please make arrangement for her to secure a room and board as I forward to you, enclosed, a money order for $25.00 which you will please give her.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Slabovskey,
How are you feeling?

I am in New York and like it very much. So far I'm not doing anything and guess I might find something later.

I received a letter from Mrs. Pinchuk and she says that Mr. Barnett is talking bad things about you. If you want me to write a letter to Mr. Barnett let me know and I'll tell him to keep quiet.

Please send me your daughter's address so I can see her.

So far I haven't anything more to say.

Best regards
Sulle Hechter.

P.S. Regards to Mrs.
Stone and Mrs. Meyer
and family.

Please answer my letter as I want to hear from you. Why didn't you answer my first letter.

February 27, 1938.

Mrs. Sulle Hechter,
244 Varot Street,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Sulle:-

I am in receipt of your letter of February 13th, and for your information it is the first and only letter I have received from you. Such is the gratitude for that which we do for others. Do not worry about Mr. Barnett. I am capable of taking care of him, but with all due respect to the situation as you left it, Mr. Barnett is entitled to another $25.00 from your brother, and you may tell your brother that I demand that he make amends for the many unjust, unfair and untruthful remarks that he made in a letter to Mrs. Pinchuk against me. Until I receive an apology from him, I shall not write to you any more.

It is necessary that your brother bear in mind that he swore to an affidavit to take you into his home and support you. You therefore have no legal right to look for work, and take a job which may be justly given to an American citizen. I would advise that you be very careful because the authorities watch your every move.

I have a record of the money spent in your case, which includes doctor bills, medicine, food, clothing and rent, and also the cost of entry into the United States; it far exceeds the amount of money your brother sent for your maintenance. In his letter of apology, if he will ask me for this statement, I'll be glad to furnish him with same.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,

Honorable Rabbi M. Roth.

I was very excited yesterday and sent you a check instead of a certified check. If this check in any way prevents my sister's coming trip to me, I would appreciate it very much if you will send this check back to me and I will send you a certified one.

Thanking you I am
yours very truly
Rabbi D. Hechter
