Re: Morris Bloom &
Jennie Ansenovitch

Dear Madam:

We are advised by Mrs. Bloom that a Mr. Schine or Schane living in your city, at 212 El Paso Street, is a relative of her husband, who deserted her and her four children many years ago, leaving the family destitute. We understand that Mr. Bloom lives about 100 miles from El Paso, and that he has assumed the name of Butler. The relatives know his address but are unwilling to disclose it to Mrs. Bloom.

Could you in some way obtain this address for us, without the relatives knowing? The Los Angeles Failure to Provide Bureau has for many years endeavored to locate this man.

We will greatly appreciate your co-operation.

Very truly yours,

Re; Morris Bloom and Jennie Ansenovitch

Dear Sir; Replying to your letter of Dec. 18th we will give you the following information with referance to the above case;

Mr. Bloom or Butler is living in Silver City New Mex. He got a divorce from his wife in California on the grounds of adultery and is now married to a former El Paso girl and is living in the above named city.

The report on Mrs. Bloom of Los Angeles is as follows;

Mr. Bloom was her third venture in matrimony. Her first child whom we understand is a cripple is by a former marriage and when Mr. Bloom moved to Los Angeles with his wife and children Mrs. Bloom became enamoured with a young man and forced her husband to leave.

How true this information is I do not know but such is the history of the case as told to me by the family in El Paso.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Frank Elabosky, Field Executive
