Re: Esther Kotlar chyk
Poland

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:

May we ask your interest in behalf of the above client who is eager to immigrate from Poland.

The American relative, Mr. Issic Kotlarchyk, of 283 Jericho Turnpike, Floral Park, N. Y., submitted an affidavit of support but the American Consul in Poland rejected them as they were inadequate and accordingly the above client cannot hope to come to the United States. It is however hoped that she can join her brother in Mexico who when last heard from was residing at the following address:

Morris Kotlarchik
El Gredito
Centenario 46
Aguascalientes, Ags.

He has not responded to the letter from the American relative and we are therefore asked to intercede in their behalf.

We do not know to what agency this inquiry should be referred and therefore would ask that you kindly direct it to the proper source for investigation.

Thanking you for your usual courtesies and most valuable cooperation, I am,

Sincerely yours

Sara Dukore

Dear Sir:-

We have an appeal from our New York Office asking that you intercede in behalf of your sister, Esther, now living in Poland, who wishes to leave that Country.

Your relative, Issic Kotlarchyk, 283 Jericho Turnpike, Floral Park, N. Y., submitted an affidavit of support that the American Consul in Poland rejected as inadequate. However, it is hoped that you will ask her to come to Mexico, and if you decide to have her join you, I would suggest that you have her come to Mexico in transit through the United States. She will then have a better opportunity to permanently enter the United States.

If there is any way that I can help you to expedite this matter, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Awaiting your immediate reply, I am

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Frank Zlabovsky,
Field Executive.
