El Paso Texas

Dear Mrs. Zlabovsky:-

Immediately upon receiving your letter we visited Mrs. Greenberg. She seemed only slightly interested but promised to try to arrange the bond and notify us of the results. As she did not communicate with us we telephoned her. She had not yet taken care of the matter but again promised to do so immediately. We shall notify you as soon as we hear from her.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: Max (Mattus) Greenberg

I have your letter of August 7th regarding Max Greenberg, his wife and two children. I hesitate to take this up officially with the Washington authorities but would like to wait until I get to Washington myself and look at the record before making any inquiries. It may therefore be some weeks before you will get any report on this case. I want you to know however that I shall not overlook it.
