re-Cohen, Dr. Walter and Dr. Bertha
41 West 90th Street

Will you please communicate with Mr. Louis Fishbein, 309 North Oregon Street, El Paso Texas, who is the affiant of Dr. Walter Cohen, to determine the extent of his willingness to financially assist Dr. Cohen.

Mr. Fishbein is a cousin of Mrs. Cohen's step-mother, who is still in Germany. Request for affidavit was made through Mrs. Cohen who arrived in this country on May 25th, 1938. Mrs. Cohen, who is also a physician, was given an affidavit by her cousin, Mr. Lee Herz, 1642 E 56th Street, Chicago, Ill. who has refused to give assistance. The Cohens were married in about February 1938, in Germany, about three months prior to Mrs C's leaving for this country.

Dr. Bertha Cohen arrived in May 1938 and was known to the Council of Jewish Women who originally supplemented a small allowance given by her step-brother, Kurt Falkenstein. When the brother's wages were cut, full allowance of $12.50 weekly was given to Mrs. Cohen and arrangements were made for a scholarship with Dr. Berchenko. Mrs. Cohen has already taken her language examination and plans to take the Medical State Board in New York in January. Dr. Walter Cohen, who is 47, and had specialized in dermatology and venerology in Germany, arrived in this country on 9-13-38. He too plans to take the State Board Examination in January and will require a good deal of financial assistance until the couple become self-maintaining. Dr. Cohen brought with him approximately $60, so that the couple now have funds sufficient for approximately three weeks.

Inasmuch as both Dr. and Mrs. Cohen are physicians planning to take the license examination and planning to establish themselves, we feel that the matter should be presented to Mr. Fishbein who is a relative of Mrs. Cohen, so that some financial assistance might be forthcoming.

Thank you for your cooperation.
