Biography

Conrey Bryson, a news broadcaster, author, and historian, was born in Cleveland, Utah on October 13, 1905, the son of Samuel C. Bryson, a farmer and miner, and Clara E. (Davis) Bryson. He arrived in El Paso, Texas in 1929 with a theater company. After the company went bankrupt, he began working for Western Union Telegraph as a courier. In 1936 Karl O. Wyler, the founder and owner of KTSM Radio, hired him, and Bryson worked for KTSM Radio until 1954 when he became a news anchor for KTSM TV, channel 9. He worked there until 1964, and many of his broadcasts focused on El Paso history and lifestyle. During his time at KTSM Radio and TV he also worked as a writer, producer and special events coordinator. He was a member of the El Paso Public Service Board from 1952 to 1964. From 1959 to 1964 he was an instructor at the University of Texas at El Paso where he received his BA and MA degrees in 1954 and 1959, respectively. In 1965 he went to Washington, D.C. to work for Congressman Richard C. White as an administrative assistant, a position he held until 1972 when he retired.

Upon returning to El Paso, Bryson focused his full attention on writing. His publications include The Land Where We Live, Aniversario-El Paso Committee, 1973; Dr. L.A. Nixon and the White Primary, Texas Western Press, 1974; Down Went McGinty: El Paso in the Wonderful Nineties, Texas Western Press, 1977; and Winter Quarters, Deseret Book Co., 1986. He was also a contributing editor of Password, the Journal of the El Paso County Historical Society, and was working on a book about the Memphis, El Paso, and Pacific Railroad.

In 1977 Bryson received the Sonnichsen Award from Texas Western Press, and he was inducted into the El Paso Herald-Post Authors Hall of Fame in 1990. He was a member of the Western Writers of America and the Mormon History Association. His community involvement included the El Paso County Historical Society where he was the president in 1963-1964 and 1974, the University of Texas at El Paso Heritage Commission, and the El Paso Westerners Corral.

He was married to Pearl (Pat) Hale on May 15, 1935; she died in 1972. He married Fay Gardener on August 20, 1974. In 1993 he married Marzilla Wright Anderson. He had two children, Beth (Mrs. D.E. Hurst) and Maurice C. Bryson. Conrey Bryson died May 24, 1994.
