Biography or Historical Sketch

Epperson and Burnett (also known as E & B Spring and Trailer Co.) specialized in the wholesale of wagon wood and blacksmith supplies, farm machinery, and automobile springs. The company was founded in El Paso, Texas in 1925 by Otis C. Epperson, a blacksmith, and his son-in-law Jack Henry Burnett. Between 1925 and 1935 the business was located at 619 E. Overland Street, and from 1936 through 1954 the business was located at 108 S. Campbell Street. The business shut down in 1954, two years after the city of El Paso offered to buy the business location for the impending construction of a new City Hall.

Otis C. Epperson was born in Illinois in approximately 1877. He was a veteran of the Spanish American War. His date of death is unknown but is estimated to be between 1955 and 1964. He and his wife Estelle, also from Illinois, were the parents of three daughters, Berniece, Pauline, and Nell. The family migrated to El Paso on or around 1920.

Jack Henry Burnett was born in 1899 in Texas and migrated to El Paso at the age of twelve. He married Otis C. Epperson's daughter, Berniece. Jack Henry was a member of the Altura Presbyterian Church and Fraternity Lodge 1111 AF and AM. He died in El Paso on December 19, 1975. He was preceded in death by his wife Berniece Epperson Burnett and survived by three sons, Jack H. Burnett, Jr., Otis Epperson Burnett, and William Davis Burnett.

Series Description or Arrangement

The collection is arranged in two series.

Series I, Historical and Biographical Information, is arranged by format and then chronologically.

Series II, Business Records, is arranged by type of record, then alphabetically by name and, finally, chronologically by date.

Scope and Content Notes

The Epperson and Burnett company records consist of statements, invoices, purchase orders, and bills of lading consistent with the day to day activities of a wholesale business. In addition, there are bundles of pages from accounting ledgers that track the daily business practices of the company to include accounts payable, accounts receivables, expenses, and employee payroll. There are also miscellaneous receipts to include utility payments, bank receipts, federal tax receipts, property rendition forms, employee withholding certificates, and contracts. The records include a photograph of Otis C. Epperson and Jack Henry Burnett standing in front of the business at its 619 E. Overland Street location, and Jack Henry Burnett's driver's licenses and vehicle registrations.

Series I, Historical and Biographical Information, contains a framed photograph of Otis C. Epperson and Jack Henry Burnett standing in front of their building, dated 1927. In addition, the series contains driver's licenses and vehicle registrations belonging to J.H. Burnett.

Series II, Business Records, consists of statements, invoices, and bills of lading from both local and out of town companies and the federal government, and employee records. Accounting ledgers and journals document business activities including steel purchases made by the company.

Provenance Statement

The Epperson and Burnett company records were received from the family of Jack Henry Burnett, Sr. in March and April of 1976.
