HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Kohlbergs were successful business entrepreneurs who made valuable and memorable civic contributions to the development of El Paso and West Texas. Historical information about them was recorded and preserved through the foresight and commitment of family members.

Family Origins

The Kohlberg family roots can be traced back through the history of the Bassevi family to the patriarch Abraham Basch of Prague who lived from 1545 to 1590.

Ernst Kohlberg

Ernst Kohlberg was from Beverungen in Westphalia, then a province of Prussia. Born May 24, 1857 to Rosa Bernstein and Siegmund Kohlberg, he belonged to a family of seven sons and one daughter. In 1875, Ernst left Beverungen to work for Solomon C. Schultz, and moved to the El Paso region.

Over the next three years, Ernst Kohlberg wrote letters back to family and loved ones in Germany, describing his experiences. His son, Walter Lionel Kohlberg, later translated the letters into English. In 1973, the Texas Western Press at the University of Texas at El Paso published Letters of Ernst Kohlberg, 1875-1877.

The International Cigar Factory

In 1881, Ernst opened a store for the wholesale and retail distribution of cigars. Joined by his brother Moritz, he operated the business under the name of Kohlberg Brothers Tobacco Company. Five years later, the young businessmen opened the International Cigar Factory. As the first cigar manufacturers in the Southwest area, the Kohlbergs' signature product became the popular La Internacional cigar.

Taft-Díaz Meeting

When the meeting between presidents Taft and Díaz took place in 1909, Ernst Kohlberg was proprietor and manager of the Regis Hotel where the state ceremonial banquet was held.

Death of Ernst Kohlberg

Ernst Kohlberg died an untimely death at the hands of a gunman on June 17, 1910. This scrapbook contains newspaper coverage of Ernst Kohlberg's murder and the subsequent trial of his assailant.

Only fifty-three years old at the time of his murder, Ernst Kohlberg had already established his legacy in El Paso. Married for almost twenty-six years, Olga and Ernst Kohlberg had three sons and one daughter—Walter Lionel Kohlberg, Herbert Sidney Kohlberg, Leo Jacob Kohlberg, and Else Betty Kohlberg.

Olga Kohlberg

Olga Bernstein was born in Eberfeld, Prussia. She was twenty years old when she married Ernst Kohlberg on June 22, 1884 and moved to the United States. Married for almost twenty-six years, Ernst and Olga had three sons and one daughter. Olga Kohlberg was an important contributor to El Paso's burgeoning frontier civic community. With dedication she served her Southwestern home until her death in 1935. Olga Kohlberg helped to establish El Paso's first free kindergarten school (the first free kindergarten in Texas) and was a primary influence behind the development of the city's first public library and hospital.

A dynamic community member, she helped to organize and lead various organizations. She was a founding member of the Ladies Benevolent Association, the Kindergarten Association, and the Mount Sinai Jewish Congregation. She was a founding member and President of the El Paso Woman's Club and the El Paso Library Association. She was also a recognized member of the Jewish Welfare Association and the local chapter of the American Association of University Women.

For her many accomplishments, Olga Bernstein Kohlberg was elected to the Hall of Honor by the El Paso County Historical Society in November of 1972. Also, two schools in the El Paso Independent School District have been dedicated to Mrs. Kohlberg. The former Zach White Elementary School, originally built in 1927, was proudly renamed the Olga Bernstein Kohlberg Prekindergarten/ Kindergarten in May of 1992. The second school honoring Mrs. Kohlberg was a new building designated the Olga B. Kohlberg Elementary School. Dedicated in November of 1997, the school's motto is - dream, believe, achieve... Kohlberg's keys to success!
