

2019

Guide to MS670 Memoirs of Jack H. Wilkinson

Abbie Weiser

University of Texas at El Paso, ahweiser@utep.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.utep.edu/finding_aid

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections Department at ScholarWorks@UTEP. It has been accepted for inclusion in Finding Aids by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@UTEP. For more information, please contact lweber@utep.edu.

Guide to
MS 670
Memoirs of Jack H.
Wilkinson

circa 2005

0.25 inches (linear)

Processed by Abbie Weiser
February 28, 2019

Donated by Jack H. Wilkinson, October 7, 2010.

Citation: Memoirs of Jack H. Wilkinson, MS670, C.L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department. The University of Texas at El Paso Library.

C.L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department
University of Texas at El Paso

Historical Sketch

Jack H. Wilkinson (1925-2014) was an athletic coach, science teacher, WWII veteran, and military history enthusiast. He also worked for 22 years as a right-of-way agent for the El Paso Natural Gas Company during summers. A member of the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame, Wilkinson played football for Odessa High School, lettered in football at Texas Western College (now UTEP), and played in two Sun Bowls. He later received his master's degree in physical education. During WWII, he served for three years in the U.S. Navy. After joining the Navy in El Paso, he trained in California and served in the Pacific Theater. He was married to Betty Wilkinson for 62 years. They had two children.

[Source: Obituary, El Paso Times; Navy Days of Jack Wilkinson during WWII]

Series Description or Arrangement

The collection contains two copies of Jack H. Wilkinson's WWII memoir.

Scope and Content Notes

This collection contains two copies of Jack H. Wilkinson's WWII memoir titled Navy Days of Jack Wilkinson during WWII. The fifteen-page memoir was probably written around 2005 – 2006. It describes playing football in Odessa, registering for the draft, joining the Navy in June 1943 in El Paso, military training in California, military experiences in the South Pacific and Japan, and a Casa Grande reunion in 2005.

Provenance Statement

Donated by Jack H. Wilkinson, October 7, 2010.

Restrictions

Author does not have copyright according to the deed of gift.

Literary Rights Statement

Permission to publish material from the Memoirs of Jack H. Wilkinson must be obtained from the C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library. Citation should read Memoirs of Jack H. Wilkinson, MS670, C.L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library.

Notes to the Researcher

None.

Container List

Box #	Folder #	Title	Date
1	1	Navy Days of Jack Wilkinson during WWII [2 copies]	circa 2005-2006