Biographical Sketch

Herbert C. Morrow, Jr. was born in 1933 and died in Las Cruces, New Mexico in June 2003. He spent much of his later life in the El Paso area working in the field of historic preservation and archaeology. He worked as Curator of Exhibits at UTEP's Centennial Museum, as Director of Historic Preservation at the West Texas Council of Governments, and as archaeologist at Ft. Bliss.

Series Description or Arrangement

These papers are minimally processed.

Scope and Content Note

The bulk of the papers consist of the creator's subject files about the history and archaeology of the U.S.-Mexico border region. They also contain research notes and reports on his work. The papers reflect a continuing interest in the horticulture of the area, particularly viticulture.

Provenance Statement

Brought to the Library by Skip Clark on December 30, 2003, and a deed of gift was received from his widow, Karen Morrow, in April 2009.

Restrictions

None.

Literary Rights Statement

Permission to publish material from the Herbert C. Morrow papers must be obtained from the C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library. Citation should read Herbert C. Morrow papers, MS504, C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library.
