Biography

Sister Aloysius Williams (d. July 11, 2003) was a nurse, a member of the Daughters of Charity Order in St. Louis, and a longtime administrator of the Hotel Dieu School of Nursing in El Paso. Sister Aloysius graduated from St. Vincent School of Nursing and Marian College. She received her master's degree in nursing school administration from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

Sister Aloysius came to El Paso in 1959 to teach and administer the Hotel Dieu School of Nursing. During her 27-year career at the school, Sister Aloysius was an assistant professor of nursing, director of continuing education, and associate director of the nursing school. Under her leadership, Hotel Dieu's enrollment grew and the school joined the UT System in the early 1970s and UTEP in 1976 (now the UTEP School of Nursing).
