Biography

Adair Margo owned the Adair Margo Art Gallery from 1985 to 2010 and founded the Tom Lea Institute in 2009. Margo chaired the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities (2000 – 2008) and was appointed to the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO. In 2007, she received the Águila Azteca Award from Mexico for strengthening international relationships. She became the first lady of El Paso when her husband, Dee Margo, was elected mayor in 2017.

Series Description or Arrangement

The records were left in the order found by the archivist. These records are minimally processed.

Scope and Content Notes

The Adair Margo Gallery records, MS646, dates 1983 – 2016, bulk 1990s – 2000s. Types of records include correspondence, publications, photographs and slides, CDs, catalogs, and other materials. These records help document the history of the Adair Margo Gallery and the activities of its owner, Adair Margo. They also provide information about local artists such as Tom Lea, Jose Cisneros, Luis Jimenez, James Magee/Annabel Livermore, and Russell Waterhouse.
