Biography

Yvonne Entyre Greear (1921 - April 11, 1993) was the assistant university librarian for public services at UTEP for many years. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Greear received her BFA in radio broadcasting in 1948 and her MLS in 1962. During her 30-year career at UTEP, she worked as a secretary, reference librarian, and department head of reference services. In 1971, she became the assistant director for public services at the UTEP Library. Greear retired from UTEP in 1988. In addition to her library work, she wrote an article about explorer John Claude White for the March 1972 issue of NOVA (UTEP's magazine). She was also interested in onomastics.

She had two daughters and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
