Biography

Nancy Corinne Miller Hamilton was born August 22, 1929, in El Paso, the daughter of Harold F. and Corinne Miller. She graduated from Austin High School in 1946 and received her B.A. degree in journalism in 1949 and M.A. in English in 1954 from Texas Western College (now The University of Texas at El Paso).

Her career alternated mainly between newspaper reporting and educational public relations. She spent nine years with the El Paso Times (1950-59), nine years with the El Paso Independent School District (1959-68), four years with the El Paso Herald-Post (1972-76) and nine years in media relations for UTEP (1976-85). She then became associate director of Texas Western Press at UTEP, serving until her retirement in 1990 and continuing to edit books for TW Press and other publishers for another ten years. In 1997 and 1998 she was a part-time lecturer in public relations for the UTEP Department of Communication.

She married Ralph E. Hamilton in 1968 and became the stepmother of his children, James (Jay) and Jeannie.

Mrs. Hamilton is an accredited member of the Public Relations Society of America and served twice as president of Rio Grande Chapter. She is former proctor for Paso del Norte Chapter of American Mensa, past chairman of the Executive Committee of the UTEP Heritage Commission, past sheriff of Mt. Franklin Corral of Westerners, and past president of Western Writers of America, a professional organization of about 500 members.

Her history interests included serving three years as editor of the El Paso Historical Society's Password, ten years on the El Paso County Historical Commission, longtime secretary-treasurer of the Pioneers Association of El Paso County, author of a biography of El Paso's first mayor and a history of UTEP, and service on the Four Centuries '81 Commission. She was a contributor to the revised Handbook of Texas. She is co-author of Legendary Watering Holes (2004, Texas A&M Press), Literary El Paso (2009, TCU Press) and Grace and Gumption: Women of El Paso (2011, TCU Press). Her honors included the El Paso Women's Hall of Fame, the 1988 Phillip E. Danielson Award from Westerners International, honorary membership in Zeta Pi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, various listings in Marquis Who's Who in Media and Communications, South and Southwest, and American Women, and Austin High School Outstanding Ex of 1990. She received the Historical Society's Porter Award for best article in Password three times.

Mrs. Hamilton began collecting Mexican folk art paintings of saints known as "retablos" in 1967. In 1981 she arranged and loaned pieces for the exhibition "Saints Preserve Us" at the Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio, and in 1991 she loaned six pieces for the InterCultura touring exhibition "The Art of Private Devotion." As a result of the latter show, she started editing the Retablo Newsletter for collectors, museums and libraries, continuing until 2002 at which time the mailing list numbered 286. She distributed the newsletter free to subscribers, who participated in three symposiums (1997, 2000 and 2001). She also loaned retablos for exhibitions at the El Paso Museum of Art, El Paso History Museum, Holy Cross Retreat in Mesilla, NM, New Mexico Farm and Ranch Museum, El Paso Centennial Museum at UTEP, and other sites.

She was a member of Third Church of Christ, Scientist, serving on the board and as clerk and Reading Room chairman.

Her survivors include her daughter, Jeannie, and her husband, Bryan Back, and their children, Jonathan and Carie, of Minnesota; her son, Jay, and his wife, Peggy, and their children, Carol Hamilton and Ryan Hamilton, of Oklahoma; sisters-in-law, Joan Cook of Palco, KS, and Mary Ann Moore of Douglass, KS; and several cousins, nieces and nephews.

(The above obituary was written by Nancy Hamilton in April 2012. She passed away in 2017.)

Series Description or Arrangement

Materials were left in the order found by archivist.

Scope and Content Notes

The Nancy Hamilton papers, MS314, date 1922 – 2009, bulk 1960s – 2000s. Types of records include correspondence, manuscripts, topical research files, newsletters, and photographs. These papers help document Hamilton's historical research, creative works, and retablo collection. Most of the photographs relate to UTEP: A Pictorial History of the University of Texas at El Paso and Hamilton's interest in retablos.

Provenance Statement

Donated by Nancy Hamilton in 1996. Accretions in January 1997, June 1999, April 2012, and July 2015. El Paso Playhouse Theater materials from the Wayne Lorentzen papers were added in February 2015. Accretion from St. Luke's Church added on June 4, 2019. Materials transferred from UTEP Heritage House by Brianne Carter on June 18, 2019.

Restrictions

None.

Literary Rights Statement

Permission to publish material from the Nancy Hamilton papers must be obtained from the C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library. Citation should read, Nancy Hamilton papers, MS314, C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department, the University of Texas at El Paso Library.

Notes to the Researcher

Some materials were deaccessioned because they did not fit our collection policy and because the items could be found elsewhere.

Deaccessioned items included clippings from local and national newspapers [loose and in two scrapbooks], 24 VHS tapes of newscasts (mostly C-SPAN), and national magazines about the Iran-Contra Affair and the impeachment of President Bill Clinton. Another box contained Brill Content Magazine. Most of these scrapbooked clippings were not identified or dated.
