Historical Sketch

Evan Haywood Antone was a professor, journalist, and longtime resident of El Paso. He was born on December 12, 1922 in Clarksville, Texas. He began his journalism career at the Clarksville Times before moving to El Paso in the 1940s. Soon after, he earned his PhD in English Literature from UCLA and began working at the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), where he would spend the next 30 years as a professor and as an editor at Texas Western Press. Antone's books include Tom Lea, A Study of His Life and Work; William Farah, Industrialist; and From Strength to Strength, A Centennial History of First Presbyterian Church of El Paso. He was also part of the El Paso County Historical Society and served as its president for a time.

Antone was a member of the Presbyterian Church. In 1949, he married Mary Ann Hamilton and they had two daughters. Evan Antone passed away on March 25, 2009.
