Historical Sketch

Established in 1978, the Franklin Mountains Wilderness Coalition consists of over thirty local organizations as well as individual members. The Coalition “played a central role in the events that led to the establishment of Franklin Mountains State Park in 1979.” The Coalition is “dedicated to:

- (1) preserving the scenic beauty and wilderness character of the Mountains;
- (2) protecting the plant and animal resources of the Mountains and preserving the whole range as an intact ecosystem;
- (3) stimulating appreciation of the natural values of the Mountains and promoting understanding of their biological, cultural and geological features; and
- (4) encouraging recreational, scientific and educational uses of the Mountains consistent with preserving their scenic beauty and wilderness character.”
