KVOF STAFF

Pat McDonald and Lavon Hartrick are two of a staff of seven girls who are responsible for traffic at the campus station. Rita Salazar checks the daily log with the station sponsor, Mr. Virgil Hicks.

Fred Witt takes the morning reading of meters on the FM Transmitter, as Kathy Stone checks over the Associated Press news for the day's first newscast.

Shown working in the KVOF continuity department are Pat McDonald, Wanda Hill, Traffic Manager for KVOF-FM, and Barbara Blair.

"The Texas Western Showcase" originates from the campus studios and is broadcast over Radio Station KEPO. Her Mickey Dunigan reports the campus news.

Lee Walker gives the "stand-by" signal as announcer Jack Mischen prepares to read the opening announcement. Kathy Stone is at the piano, and Marvin Beier serves as Recording Engineer.

Lee Walker makes critical adjustment on the KVOF AM Transmitter, Marvin Beier stands by to cue the Studio Announcer, and Howard Sagor handles the control board.

Handling the important job of cataloging the music is KVOF Music Director Nancy Creswell.
