Vice-President, Roger Ellison, presides over Student Senate.

STUDENT OFFICIALS DIRECT ACTIVITIES

The executive powers of student government at UT El Paso are delegated among the five officers who make up the Student Association. The officers for the 1967-68 school year are as follows: President, Jim Phelan; First Vice-President, Roger Ellison; Second Vice-President, Patty Aboud; Treasurer, Suzi Navarro; and Secretary, Gayle Swift. They are elected from the student body each April for a term of one year.

The members serve the campus through the execution of various activities. One of the most important of these involves making arrangements for the appearance of well-known personalities on campus. This year, they presented Richard Pryor, the Pair Extraordinaire and Pat Paulson, Earl Grant, Barbara McNair, and the Association as well as other top names in both the entertainment and educational fields.

Vice-President, Patty Aboud, arranges for entertainment.

Individual students help with Student Association projects such as the annual Parent-Player reception.

Treasurer, Suzi Navarro, must keep a close account of student funds.

After receiving the nomination of the Independent Student Party, candidates prepare for a rigorous campaign.

S.A. CAMPAIGN FOLLOWED BY ELECTIONS;

Candidates for Cheerleader must give samples of their cheering talents before voting takes place.

FUN PROJECTS

Summer activities sponsored by S.A. include the Summer School Dance.

Campus Christmas decorations are directed by Student Association

Secretary, Gayle Swift, carries on Association correspondence and typing duties.

The Association supplements with brass instruments.

Barbara McNair performs at one of the frequent noontime concert-lectures.

SA ENTERTAINMENT SERIES IS POPULAR

UT-El Paso students enjoyed big name entertainment during the year. One of the most enjoyable combinations was that of Pat Paulsen, dead-pan critic for CBS's SMOTHERS BROTHERS, and Liberty Recording stars, the "PAIR EXTRAORDINAIRE. Paulsen held court for a full sixty minutes, relating that his life had been happy except for 1958, "when I passed away." It was a dewy eyed, hand-holding crowd that oohed and ahed when the ASSOCIATION sang Cherish in Memorial Gym. Student Association officials tabbed stars Simon and Garfunkle, the Pozo Seco singers, and John Gary for late Spring appearances. Comic Richard Prior also made a campus appearance this year.

SUPREME COURT HAS BROAD JURISDICTION

Supreme court meets regularly in the Union.

The Supreme Court of the University of Texas at El Paso plays an important function in the student government of the campus. The Supreme Court is the only one in Texas consisting entirely of students having jurisdiction over students. It can enforce the laws that govern the student body. The Court is composed of nine students from various fields of study who are appointed by the President. The court hears cases that are appealed by the students after a ruling has been made by a subordinate court such as the Traffic Court. After hearing a case, the Court can make recommendations to the Faculty Disciplinary Committee.

Students may have fellow students serve as counsel in cases.

STUDENT SENATORS ELECTED IN SPRING

The Student Senate, which is the center of student government legislative powers, is truly a representative body of student government. The Senate is composed of fifty to seventy members who are from the various fields of study at the University. The Senators represent the various fields of science, arts, fine arts, education, business, and engineering. The Senators hold office for a year. During the years the senators compile and approve rules and regulations that are deemed necessary for the government of the student senate and the student body. During senate sessions members study legislation and go through lengthy discussions before any action is taken to vote and approve a bill. Senators are free to present their views on any proposed bill that is up before the Senate. Interested students have an opportunity to see their representatives in action.

Activity Council members supervised freshmen at the annual whitewashing of the "M."

ACTIVITY COUNCIL'S JOB GROWS BIGGER

Activities Council is the coordinating body for major campus functions. Membership is made up of all interested students who want to have an active role in campus life. The Activities vice-president of the Student Association chairs the Council and makes committee appointments. The annual Campus Carnival held in the spring is one of the many activities sponsored. All campus organizations and students are invited to participate in the festivities. Homecoming activities are also coordinated by the Activities Council. Major committees are formed to handle such things as the Homecoming Parade, Bar-B-Que, and Decorations.

Sing-Song, which is an annual event on campus, provides all organizations with the opportunity to compete musically for trophies.

Receptions are another aspect of the Council's outline of work.

Ray. This year the Gun Crew came under the direct jurisdiction of the Dean of Students. A service organization, the crew maintains "Big Joe," aids in coordinating "M" Day activities, and is responsible for student participation and security during the annual Sun Bowl Guard against the "Aggies."

During the past three years, "Big Joe" has traveled over two thousand miles and has fired nearly one hundred pounds of black powder in support of the Fly'n Miners. Members are selected from applicants from the entire male student body each spring.

UNION PROGRAM IS UPC RESPONSIBILITY

The Union Program Council is responsible for all activities in the student Union. The various committees are in charge of the different aspects of Union activities. The committees are Dance, which sponsors dances for the students throughout the year; Spirit, which sponsors many rallies and provide decorations for the student body to show their support of the Miners; Publicity, which makes the university community aware of all events; Hospitality, which is responsible for all receptions and the welcoming of visitors to the Union; Film and Forum, which sponsors stimulating films and speakers throughout the semester; and Exhibits, which shows various objects of interest during the semester. Each semester the UPC Open House is conducted to familiarize all students with the activities. All students are eligible to join.

ORGANIZED COEDS, INDIVIDUALS IN AWS

The Associated Women Students is the governing body for all women students on campus to which each woman's organization sends representatives. The Executive Council is made up of various committees whose responsibilities vary from different elections to the annual Coed Ball. The main purpose of AWS is to regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of its members except those which fall under the jurisdiction of the faculty or student body organization, to increase their sense of responsibility toward each other, and to increase in every way their standards of college life. AWS sponsors the Big-Little Sister program to help familiarize freshmen women with college life. In addition, a fashion show is held each fall to aid freshmen in choosing apparel for University functions. AWS is affiliated with the Inter-collegiate AWS. Women's Honors Night is held and is an integral part of college life at UT El Paso.

BELL HALL HOUSES 98 CAMPUS COEDS

Bell Hall is a women's dormitory located at 2100 Wiggins on Campus. It houses ninety-eight women residents who are under the direction of one house mother and a graduate assistant counselor.

The Bell Hall dorm council regulates activities of the women who reside there. The council sends representatives to the Associated Women Students where they are members of the Governing Council and also serve on the Judicial Board. Another of the duties of the council is enforcement of curfew hours and clean-room inspections.

Dining facilities of Bell Hall are used by other dormitory students, which makes the dining hall a popular meeting place where Campus friendships are strengthened.

HUDSPETH HALL IS DORM ROW MEMBER

Hudspeth Hall houses 100 men in one of the older, more impressive buildings on campus. The building was one of the first dorms on campus and has housed many student leaders. John Elder, dorm president, was also Inter-dorm Council Chairman. Hudspeth won second place in the Homecoming House decorations with their psychedelic, mod theme. The men also painted signs and sidewalks around campus during football season to boost school spirit. The dorm houses men from all sections of the country as well as from foreign countries. Hudspeth is active in the campus intramural program, often winning first place in football, basketball, and baseball.

Hawthorne residents are among the most spirited people on campus.

HAWTHORNE HOUSE IS COEDUCATIONAL

Hawthorne House is the only co-educational dormitory at UT El Paso. Although the dormitory does not fall under the jurisdiction of Campus authority, it closely follows rules similar to those applied at Campus dorms.

Residents participate in Campus projects including Homecoming, Christmas decorations, Campus Carnival and others. This year, a Miss Hawthorne House contest was held in conjunction with Homecoming activities. The winner was presented during the parade and was honored at a banquet.

Modern living is seen in Hawthorne as rooms are arranged in suites. There are also spacious lounges in which residents from the two sides can meet and exchange ideas.

Burges Hall, the largest and newest dormitory on campus, houses 180 men. It was very active in campus affairs. Burges sponsored its own dances throughout the year for the student body. The dorm Sweetheart, Melinda Madland, won the Dormitory Queen election, and the Burges entry into the Rodeo Queen contest Jeri Schuhmann, was crowned the 39th Queen of the Southwest Livestock Show and Rodeo in El Paso. Burges won first place in the Homecoming House decoration with their entry, "Psychedelic Football." Burges also accomplished many firsts this year. The dorm is the only one in the Texas system to allow women visiting privileges to the men's rooms. The Burges Honorarium is the only honorary fund in any of the campus dorms.

CHENRIZIG RECOGNIZES SENIOR WOMEN

Margie Velarde, President, listens attentively to the lecture sponsored by Chenrizig.

As a women's organization, Chenrizig sends representatives to AWS governing council.

Chenrizig is a local senior women's honorary. Membership is based on three qualities: scholarship, leadership, and service. Those eligible for membership must have at least 90 and not more than 115 semester hours completed and must have a 3.0 overall average. Emphasis is placed on quality of service rather than quantity. Prospective members must have shown outstanding qualities during their college years to be tapped during the spring of their junior year.

Established at UT El Paso in 1952, Chenrizig is patterned after Mortar Board, a national women's honorary. Annual activities of Chenrizig include the sale of chrysanthemum corsages prior to the football games; the Four-Point Dinner which honors students who have maintained a 4.0 average; and an initiation banquet following the tapping of new members.

Only study will produce good grades.

TOP MEN ARE NAMED STEVENS SCHOLARS

Stevens Scholars are recipients of the four-year Stevens Scholarships established by Mrs. Lucille Stevens in 1959. Awards range from $2,500 to $5,000, based on need. Stevens Scholars recruit outstanding high school students throughout the nation to come to the University. In the past, most of the winners have lived in the Southwest, but the awards are beginning to receive national prominence. Many of the holders live in the honor dorm, Worrell Hall. Stevens Scholars also helped the Senior Excellence Fund by asking graduating seniors to donate property fees to the University for future expansion.

Relaxation and study are combined to maintain the scholarships.

Worrell Hall is located on Dormitory Road across from Cotton Memorial. There are 30 men living in the hall, 14 of whom are Stevens Scholars. Most of the men are from the immediate Southwest area, but there is one from a great distance, Peru. At the present time both the President and Vice-President of the student body live there. In the past, there have been five Student Association presidents who have lived in Worrell Hall. To remain residents, the men must maintain a 3 point grade average over the period of one year.

Some of the purposes of SAI are to uphold the highest ideals of a musical education, to raise the standards of productive musical work among women students, to further the development of music in America, and to promote a stronger bond of musical interest and understanding between foreign countries and America. SAI boasts 148 college chapters and publishes a journal, Pan Pipes, quarterly. Besides college and alumni members, SAI has 4,057 Patroness members, women actively interested in community musical affairs.

CAVALCADE SHOWS ENTERTAIN CROWD

There are two football traditions at UT El Paso. One is the announcement from the Press Box on the game attendance, and the other is the half-time appearance of the Marching Cavalcade. The Cavalcade, consisting of the marching band and the Goldiggers chalk up rave notices year after year. They put in at least eight hours a day in the period before the Sun Bowl Classic. In the regular season, the Goldiggers practice at least two hours a day, and meet with the band to further polish half-time routines. The Cavalcade is in constant demand for appearances outside the sphere of college activities. They attend many important local and civic events.

It is an organization of women students who perform dance routines at the half-times of all home football games of the UT El Paso Miners as well as at some home basketball games. Golddiggers can be recognized by their orange outfits and white Western hats. They receive one hour of P.E. credit for the course. The girls are selected on the basis of poise and ability by audition only. The girls perform dancing, twirling, pom pom and marching routines. In the past the Golddiggers have traveled to Los Angeles, Phoenix, and Tucson and have appeared on national television.

ACE SETS GOALS IN CHILD'S EDUCATION

The Association for Childhood Education attempts to further provide a program which will broaden the scope of the future educators of children in the United States and abroad. In addition to its many various fields of interest, many local, regional and national modes of education are examined and adapted for future use by ACE members. On the college level, members are chosen on a basis of grades, service and dedication to the progress of Education. There is close rapport between the students and the various faculty members of the Education department. Meetings often see a lively exchange of news and ideas.

LITERARY SOCIETY COMPILES BOOKLET

The Literary Society was started in 1957 by Mrs. Joan Quarm of the English Department with the main purpose to discuss the aspects of literature left out of class discussions. All students are welcome to membership in this society with no regard to grade point, but rather to their interest in literature. Meetings of the society are held monthly. The Literary Society encourages interest and knowledge of literature through these meetings and provides opportunities through special discussion groups and guest lecturers. A magazine entitled "Good-bye Dove" was published by the Literary Society and offered to the students for sale registration. The publication contained the works of the students and faculty who are members of the society.

STUDENTS PRODUCE MAGAZINE, PAPER

Publications of the University include the Magazine, El Burro, and the weekly newspaper, The Prospector. Edited and staffed by students, these publications are produced under the direction of the Mass Communications Department.

The Student Publications Board also reviews the publications. El Burro and The Prospector, are both award winners in Texas having both been selected as first in their particular category at the annual Texas Intercollegiate Press Association Contest.

Editors and staff members may receive credit hours for time spent working on the publications. In addition they receive training in actual production conditions which they may face in pursuit of careers in the field.

PRESS CLUB VIEWS JOURNALISTIC LIFE

After a period of inactivity, the UT El Paso press club returned to its' old status during the 1966-67 school year. An organization for Journalism majors or minors, the Press Club is an affiliate of the downtown Press Club. The Press Club takes part in arranging representation of UT El Paso members at the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association Convention. Many of the present Press Club members are part of the PROSPECTOR Staff which won top honors in May, 1967. The club is raising funds with an eye toward an all color issue of the Prospector, and is always open to prospective membership.

Press Club members enjoy interviewing celebrities.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO EXPOUNDS RADIO-TV

Alpha Epsilon Rho meetings usually are lively affairs since their Radio/Television members often hold down top positions in local stations while attending school. Alpha Epsilon Rho is the National Radio-TV fraternity, boasting such members as Walter Cronkite. Meetings are spiced with exchanges of tidbits from the local outlets, and last minute equipment modifications are cussed and discussed. Members are versed on the doings of fellow Alpha Epsilon Rho members across the country. The chapter is made up of students who are majoring in Radio or Television. Service to the local college station is taken into consideration when members are chosen.

PRIOR SERVICEMEN IN CHI GAMMA IOTA

Chi Gamma Iota is a unique newcomer to UT El Paso. Founded in 1966, it is a local fraternity composed of former members of the armed forces. Because of the large number of ex-servicemen currently enrolled at school, it is only natural that an organization which reflects their common interest and ideals should evolve. Chi Gamma Iota had a banner year in 1967 by taking part, for instance, in the Homecoming Parade with their float. Their participation has been varied and ever increasing in school activities with a goal set to help build a University that will have strong and permanent traditions.

SORORITIES GUIDED BY PANHELLENIC

Panhellenic Council at The University of Texas at El Paso, formed in the late 1930's, is composed of representatives from each of the five national sororities on the Campus: Alpha Epsilon Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Delta, and Zeta Tau Alpha. Panhellenic Council is the governing body for the sorority group, and it sets the standards for sorority activity.

One of the Council's major responsibilities is the organization and supervision of sorority rushing. Each year the Council evaluates the rushing procedure to determine the most effective rushing program and make necessary changes.

A Panhellenic-sponsored workshop is held each spring for the purpose of promoting and improving sorority-campus relations.

KAPPA DELTA JOINS GREEK COMMUNITY

Delta Alpha chapter of Kappa Delta became an active part of the University Greek organization on March 21, 1964. Since that time, the Kappa Deltas' have participated readily in all school functions including homecoming, sing song, variety show, and campus carnival. Last year the Kappa Deltas' initiated a beautiful tradition of honoring each sorority on campus with a tea. They have continued this tradition again this year by sponsoring a tea in honor of each of the four sororities. Kappa Deltas' are members of the womens honoraries at UT El Paso, and serve on both panhellenic council and Associated Women Students. Though the Kappa Deltas' are a relatively new sorority, they already maintain a large house for their members, and include themselves in all functions of the Greeks and of the University.

FRATERNITIES ACT AS COUNCIL GUIDES

The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to foster and maintain a spirit of friendliness, cooperative helpfulness, and a better understanding among all fraternities. Its membership is made up of two representatives from each of the fraternities on campus. In order to broaden the achievements of IFC, and in so doing, further the University, two members of the local council attended the National Convention held in New York City. Greek Week, sponsored annually by IFC, is the week set aside to recognize members of the Greek organizations. It is at this time that the Outstanding Greek Man and Woman are announced. This year, IFC strove to build a stronger bond between the Greeks and the Independents by sponsoring an All-school Dance.

AKL CHAPTER GETS NATIONAL CHARTER

The first UT El Paso fraternity installation in 20 years took place on November 19, 1967 when Alpha Rho, chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda, received a national charter. Robert Stuart, national vice-president of AKL, presented the charter to Bill Jung, Alpha Rho president. Alpha Rho chapter is the fortieth chapter of the fraternity in the country, and the sixth social Greek fraternity at the University. President of UT El Paso Joseph Ray, welcomed the new chapter and reminded them of their service responsibilities as a fraternity.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA OLDEST ON CAMPUS

Alpha Phi Omega retains the honor as the oldest fraternity chapter at the University of Texas at El Paso. Founded in 1919 at the Texas College of Mines, they confine their membership to second semester freshmen or above who maintain a 2.0 grade point average, and who are enrolled in the various engineering, metallurgy, geology, math, or physics courses. Known as the "Engineers Fraternity," they annually participate in collecting for the Milk Fund. The APO's have representatives in Interfraternity Council, and enjoy all of the activities of the social Greek fraternities. They entered a float in homecoming and have members in several campus organizations and honorary societies.

FUTURE IN FOCUS AT DELTA SIGMA PI

Delta Sigma Pi, a growing influential fraternity, promotes itself as the only "professional fraternity" on campus. Gamma Phi chapter was founded in 1951 and has maintained their own lodge for the past three years. The fraternity consists of those men who are business or economics majors. Several speakers and tours are planned throughout the year by the fraternity to add to the business knowledge of the members. The Delta Sigs have placed first in the chapter Efficiency contest three times, and have represented the highest qualities present in the business fraternity on a national scale. The fraternity offers student loans and awards a scholarship key to the top graduating male student at each school having a chapter of Delta Sigma Pi. The UT El Paso chapter is a member of the Interfraternity Council, and participates in all of the Greek functions on campus.

The Delta Sigs seem eager to welcome members, visitors, and passing students to their fraternity lodge near the campus.

KΣ KEEPS TROPHY, SERVICE ORIENTED

Kappa Sigma fraternity, Epsilon Xi chapter, has once again captured the All-Intramural Sports Trophy. Since the establishment of the chapter in 1949, the fraternity has held the sports award more times than any other fraternity on campus. Aside from the athletic ability of the Kappa Sigs, they have also promoted scholarship. Two of the chapter members, Tom Dawson and Pat Weiland, were selected to Men of Mines. The Kappa Sigs have contributed much of their time to worthy projects for the University. During the Christmas holidays, they set up the luminaires display on the campus. They also sponsored a Christmas party for the children of the Southwest Childrens Home as their annual tradition. The Kappa Sigs were represented in all campus activities throughout the year.

They also sponsor an entry in the El Paso Soap Box Derby each year. Outstanding men in Lambda Chi are Jerry Beard, Who's Who, Top Ten graduating seniors, Men of Mines; Mike Gabbert, Orange Key, Stevens Scholar, student senator; and Buddy Givens, Pi Sigma Alpha, band, dean's list, and Interfraternity Council.

Alpha Psi chapter of Phi Kappa Tau is recognized as the first national fraternity established at the University of Texas at El Paso in 1941. The Phi Taus have expanded in growth with the University and the community. They collected and supervised a fund for an El Paso family involved in a tragic accident. The chapter also sponsored a Christmas party for the children of the Southwest Orphanage as another civic project. Aside from the community services, the Phi Taus entered a float in the homecoming parade, and set up a booth in Campus Carnival. They captured second place in the Greek Intramural football playoffs, and were included in all of the sports activities. The Phi Tau Lodge is equipped with a swimming pool built by the members. BROTHERS OF Σ AE STRENGTHEN BONDS

An integral part of campus life since 1947, the Gamma chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon can be found in all functions at the University. During homecoming, the fraternity took the grand sweepstakes award for their float entry. Two members of the local chapter were sent to the Biennial National Convention in Minnesota. Another member was sent to the National Interfraternity Council Convention in New York. The Sig Alphas were named second in the fall sports competition. Each year they sponsor the SAE Olympics during Greek Week. This project serves a dual purpose. Money is raised for the Excellence Fund, and the Greeks are given an opportunity to compete against each other in various events.

LITTLE SISTERS ADD TO SOCIAL EVENTS

The Little Sisters of Minerva are an auxiliary of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The members of this group are selected by the SAE's, and are tapped for membership in the fall and spring. The Little Sisters promote and assist in fraternity functions. They hold separate meetings to organize projects and aid the fraternity. They are especially helpful during fall and spring rush parties.

Little Sisters of Minerva enjoy being together.

NEW HOUSE MAKES ΣAM YEAR BRIGHT

Beta Alpha chapter of Sigma Alpha Mu has proudly been an established fraternity of the UT El Paso Greek system since 1962. The Sammies, as they are called by other Greeks, have been contestants in the fraternity intramural sports events, support school functions such as campus carnival and homecoming, and belong to many organizations and honoraries on campus. Aside from these numerous activities, the Sammies support and work for ALSAC, the childrens leukemia fund, the heart fund, and the United Fund. Donating their time and interest to these groups is a fulfillment of their national philanthropy. The Sammies relax and enjoy themselves at their annual spring formal and at their many chapter parties throughout the year.

Phil Rothstein, president, admires the SAM crest on the door.

Rush can be the best time of the whole year if the setting is right.

The Sammies cheerfully participated in formal fall rush parties.

Tau Kappa Epsilon members endeavor to beautify the campus.

TKE CHAPTER SEES PROGRESS, GROWTH

Tau Kappa Epsilon, an active fraternity in the University Greek system since 1948, was selected by the National College Survey Bureau as the most improved or progressed fraternity of the 1967 year. The TKE chapter was chosen by the rating bureau over 3,000 chapters of fraternities across the nation. The TKEs proudly pledged the largest fall pledge class of all the fraternities with a total of 64 hopeful pledges. The fraternity hosted a Public Service week during October in an attempt to beautify the UT campus. The project included the restoration of the park on the corner of Wiggins and University. The Tau Kappa Epsilon lodge is located off campus at 412 Mississippi and serves as a location for the meetings, parties, and other activities for the 106 members of the chapter.

The TKEs' discuss a current topic.
