Chi Omega

Rho Delta chapter of Chi Omega has been on the U.T. El Paso campus since 1939. Since then, Chi Omegas have participated in various aspects of university life including intramurals, homecoming, Sun Carnival, campus contests, and community projects. Patricia Miller was chosen Lady-in-Waiting to the Sun Queen, and Patty Avritt was named Homecoming Queen with Sandy Mask and Marty Goodwin on the Court. Chi Omegas also had representatives on the scholastic honoraries Spurs, Cardinal Key, and Chenrizig.

Kappa Delta

National Kappa Delta Sorority was founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia in 1897. Kappa Delta has been on our campus since 1964 and in their present house since the summer of 1969. The group is active in national philanthropy in which it supports six beds in the Crippled Childrens Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. The local philanthropy consists of taking orphan children for Trick or Treat at Halloween, an Easter party, and a Christmas party. Kappa Deltas are also kept busy with Peanut Week, Christmas festivities, intramural sports, Spring Formal and Dagger Week.

Alpha Phi Omega

Members of Alpha Phi Omega gather once again for their annual picture at the old mine shaft. Alpha Phi Omega is both a social and professional fraternity which is open to both Engineering and Science majors. This year, the group celebrated its fifty-first year on campus, making it the oldest fraternity at U.T. El Paso and dating back to the College of Mines. Among Alpha Phi Omega's activities this year, the group donated money to the El Paso Times milk fund.

Epsilon Xi Chapter of Kappa Sigma has been active this year in various money-raising projects as well as in community service projects. At the same time, the group has managed to maintain its outstanding scholarship as recognized in the past. The members are shown with members of Stardusters, the women's auxiliary to Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Members of Stardusters aid the fraternity in various activities, both social and service. The girls also help with rush and serve as guidelines to the pledges while they are fulfilling their obligations to the fraternity.

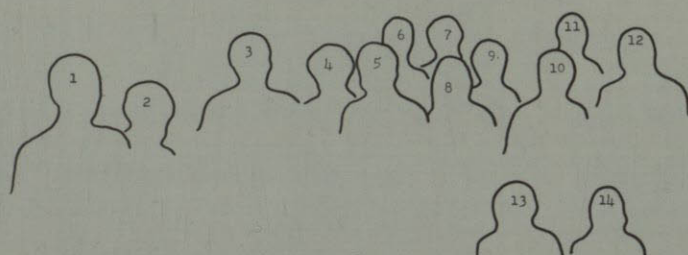

Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first national inter-collegiate Black fraternity, was founded December 4, 1906 at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. More than 35,000 men have been initiated into Alpha Phi Alpha since its founding. It has been interracial since 1945. There are now 150 college chapters on campuses and 215 alumni chapters in 41 states including the District of Colombia, West Indies, Europe, Africa, Vietnam, and the Virgin Islands. The group is proud to claim such outstanding men as the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Thurgood Marshall, O.J. Simpson, Duke Ellington, and many others. Manly deeds, scholarship, and the love for all mankind comprise the fundamental doctrine of all Alpha Phi Alpha men. Brotherhood of Alpha Phi Alpha is directed toward fully developing the individual both mentally and morally.

Orange Key

A freshman and sophomore men's honor society, Orange Key members must maintain a 3.0 overall grade point average to remain in good standing in the organization. This year Orange Key sponsored Faculty-Student rap sessions with the heads of academic departments. Other projects sponsored by the organization included a teacher-course evaluation and a tutoring service for freshmen and sophomores.
