

Campus Capers

REGISTRATION

Freshmen students labor over entry examinations.

No cheating, please!

Hmm, he did pretty well!

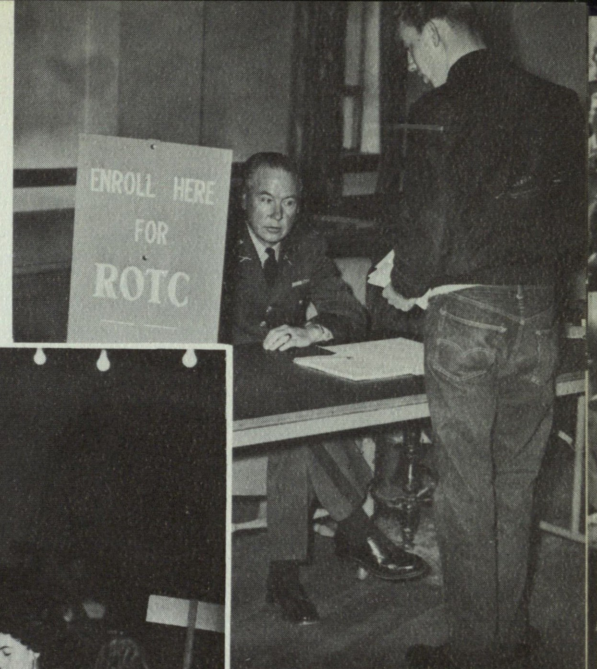

The pink one . . . no, the pink one . . .

No, you have to report here before you go there.

You're going to have to start sometime; it might as well be here and NOW.

I've already been here two hours. Why can't they hurry?

I don't have to go back, do I?

Red tape, red tape and more red tape... All I'm doing is registering.

The stamp is bigger than the paper....

REGISTRATION

HOMECOMING PARADE

The Student Association decorated cars with streamers for the game.

The Goldiggers marched in the parade and performed at half-time as well.

The Ex-Student band entered the parade in an effort to help inspire the team.

Bonnie Toman rode aboard the Tau Kappa Epsilon entry.

The Campus Colleagues' float depicted future Homecoming victories.

H
O
M
E
C
O
M
I N
G

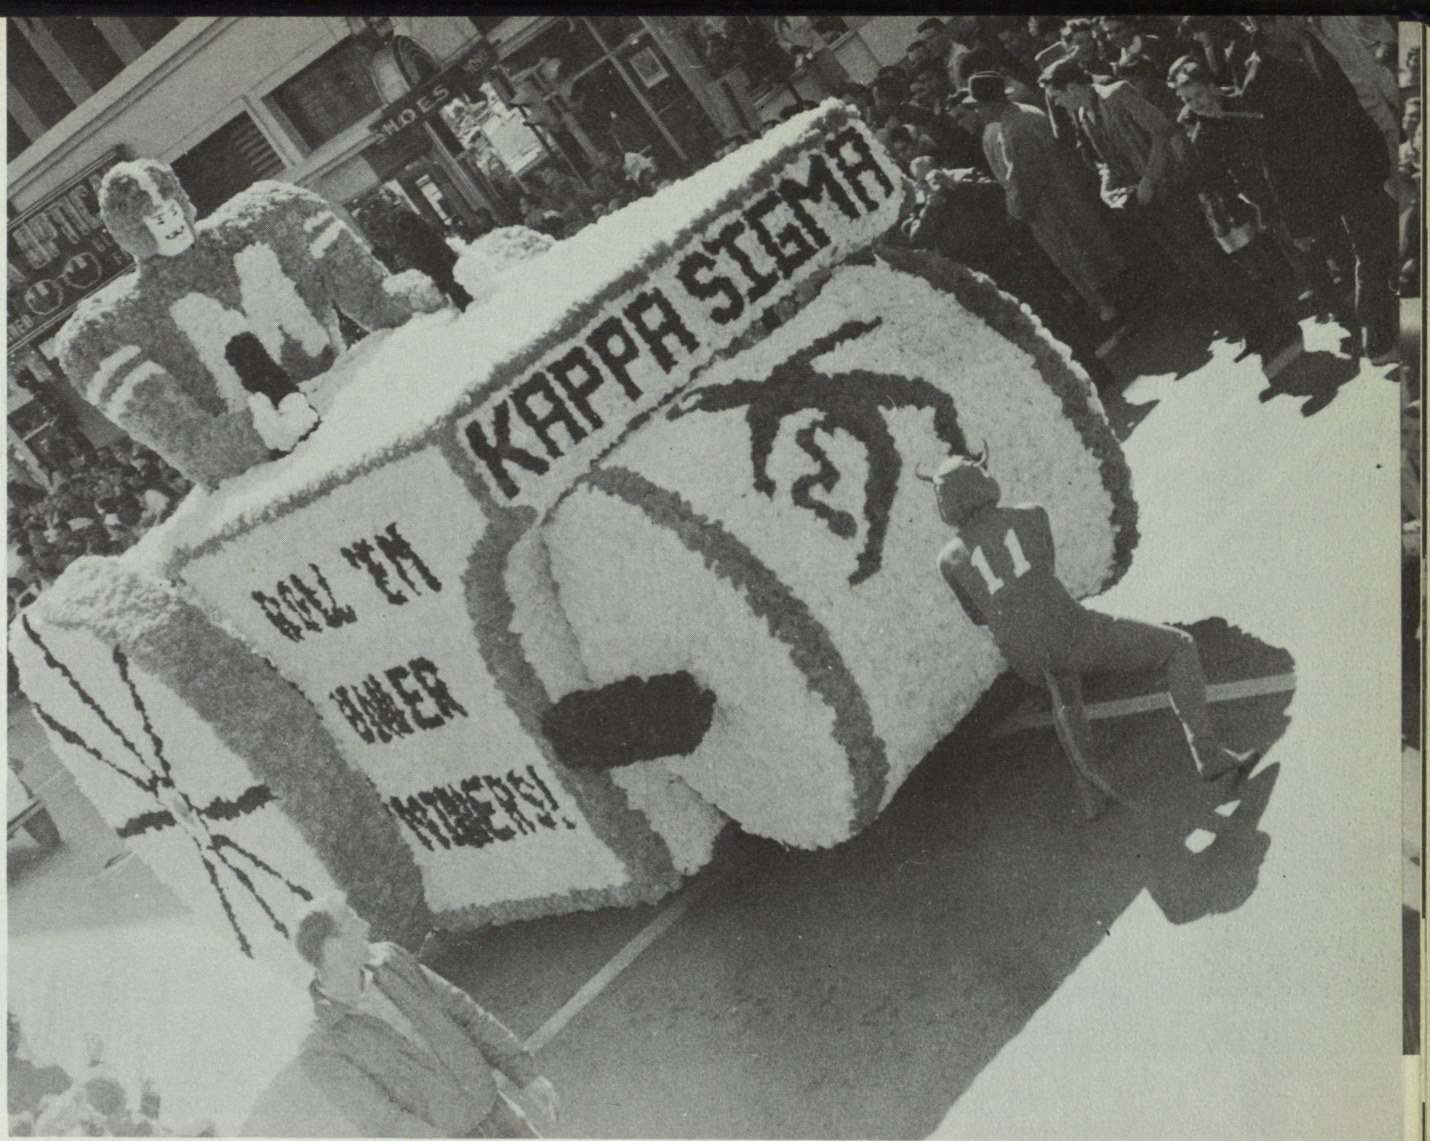

HOMECOMING

The Delta Delta Delta entry portrayed past Homecoming Queens.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entered this winning float depicting the Move For Co-Education.

"ROLL 'EM OVER MINERS" was the winning touch for the Kappa Sigma entry.

Members and sponsors helped the Delta Gamma sorority put across their idea of Homecoming, 20...

HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING

The Lambda Chi Alpha float asked the question, "Will We Change Our Name?", reflecting memories of TCM.

Chi Omega sorority members stoked the fires in an effort to try to Burn the Sun Devils.

Pre-Med Club presented an after-the-game scene.

Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority paid tribute to Coach Ben Collins.

H
O
M
E
C
O
M
I N
G

BEAUTY CONTEST

Mary Lou Morehead appears for the first time looking quite shiek in red and black.

Glenda Elderidge received second place honors, and it isn't hard to see why.

How hard it was for the judges to eliminate five of these lovelies who represent the results of the preliminary contest!

Again, Mary Lou looked charming! In fact, this "yellow rose of Texas Western" copped top place in the 1957 Beauty Contest.

Vivaciousness and natural beauty led Bonnie Toman to third place in the contest.

Sharon Nye, Martha Lou Florence, Bonnie Toman, Glenda Eldridge, and Mary Lou Morehead were chosen the five most beautiful girls at TWC.

BEAUTY CONTEST

Eugenia Niehaus, president of the Coed Council, crowns Caesar Fulton king of the 1957 dance.

Santa Claus, Rudolph, Frosty the Snowman, and stars led these dancers to the partners who they are now stepping with.

Harrison Brock, Eugenia Niehaus, Gretchen Wegener, and Bill Lewis stop for a moment to pose before they again join in the merrymaking.

King Caesar is surrounded by his court: Dukes Jim Matlock, Art Hull, and Court Jester Orlando Garza as Eugenia Niehaus looks on.

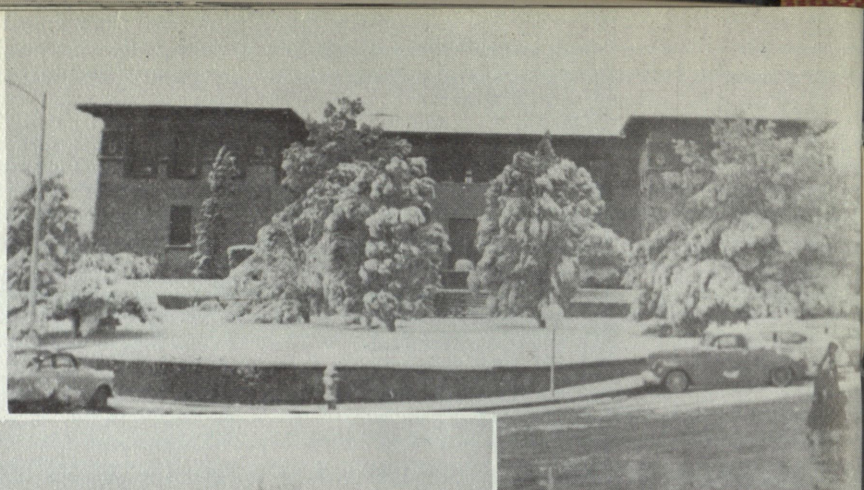

The 1957 Military Ball was climaxed with the presentation of Queen Mary Jane of the House of Telehany and her court Duchesses Martha Lou Florence and Barbie Hurt. Their escorts are George Sullivan, David Birkelback, and Jerry McClelland, respectively.

The Queen and her escort seem very absorbed in their dancing!

SNOW at TWC

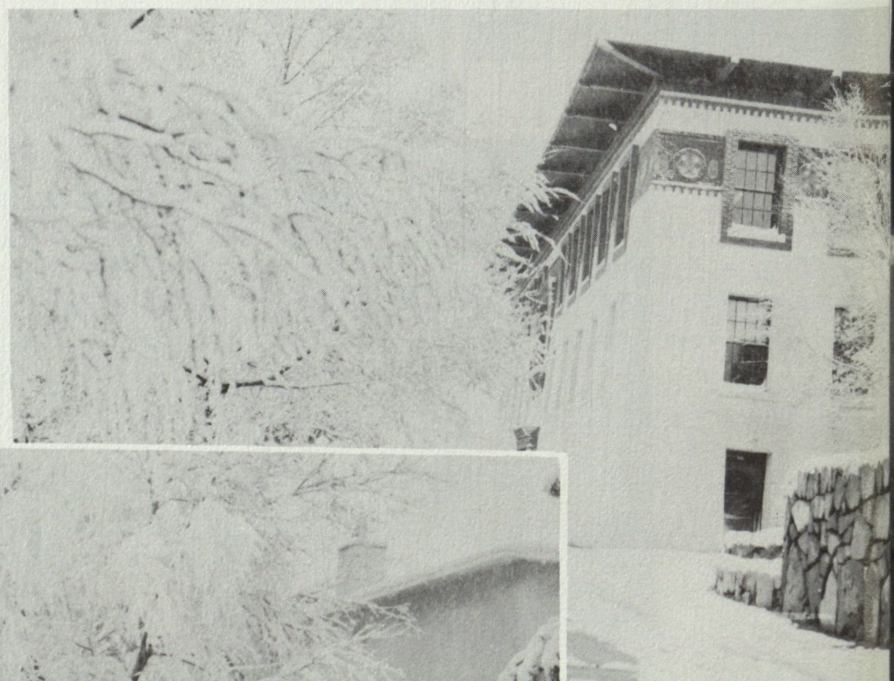

School must go on!

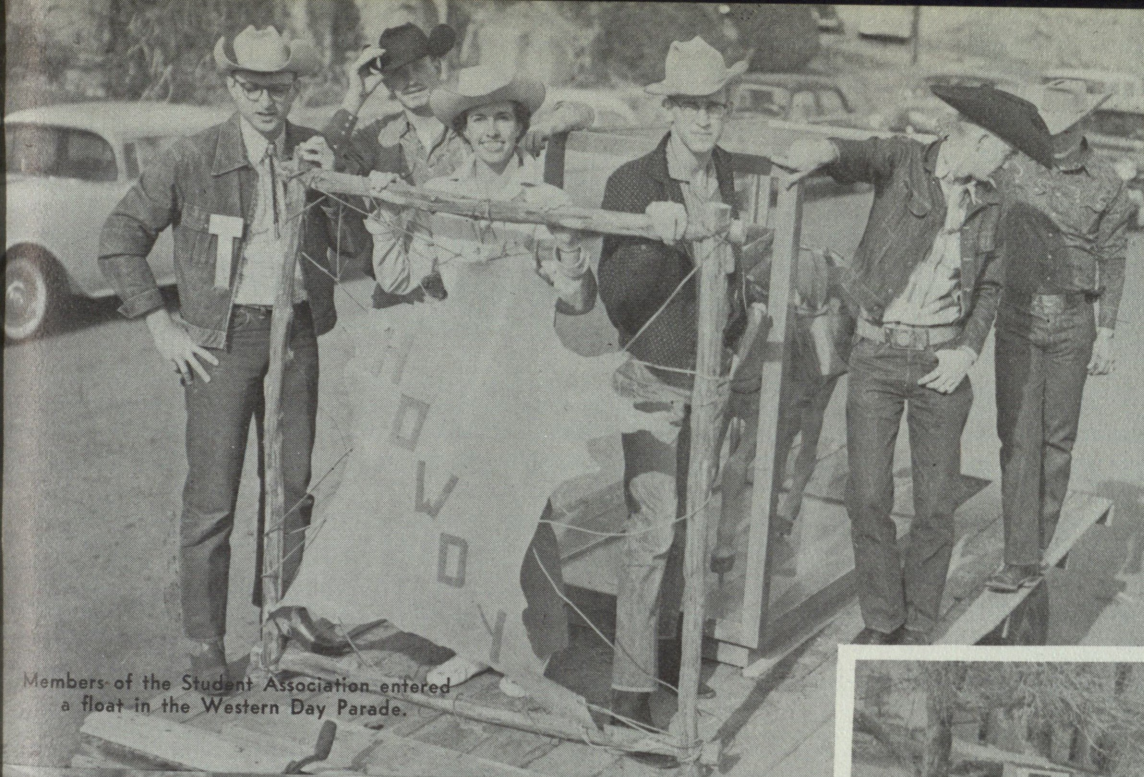

This couldn't be TWC's Campus, could it?

Can you imagine trying to study math or physics with surroundings like these?

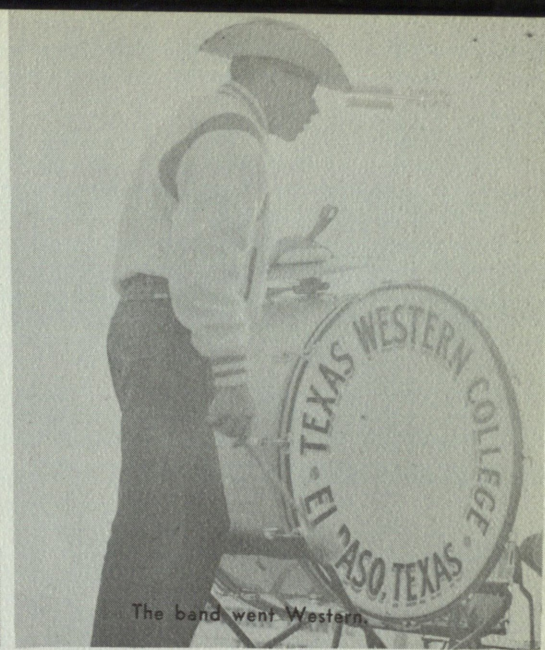

This is a true Southwestern Wonderland!

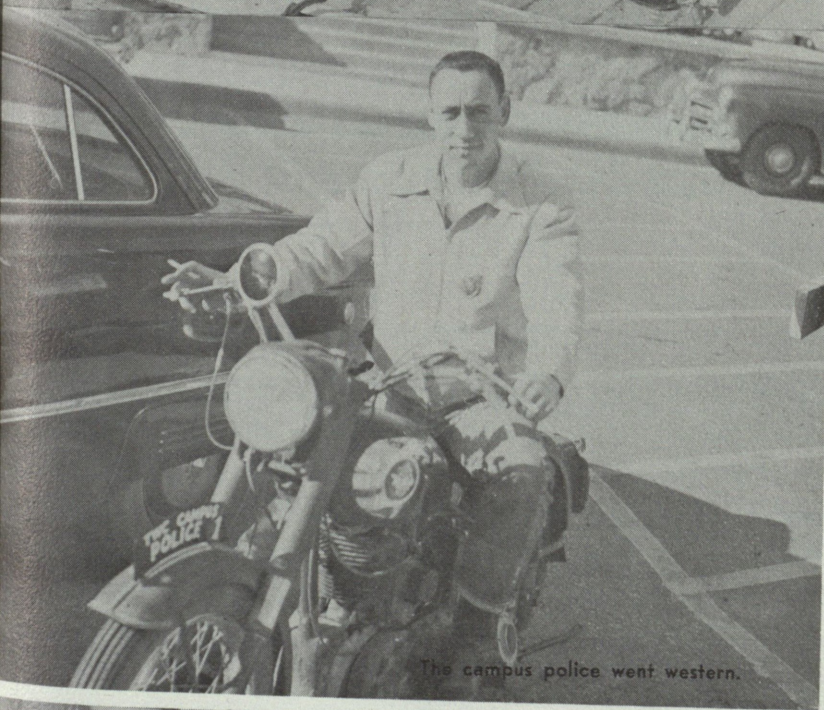

Members of the Student Association entered a float in the Western Day Parade.

The band went Western.

The campus police went western.

"Dynamite," got a free ride in the western style parade.

There may not be 76 Trombones, but they sound mighty good.

WESTERN DAY

Snowballs came thick and fast

Ingenious Chi Omegas sculptured a snow-woman.

The proud sculpturers of this snow-woman pose for the photographer

SNOW AT TWC

Heave ho that water up the hill!

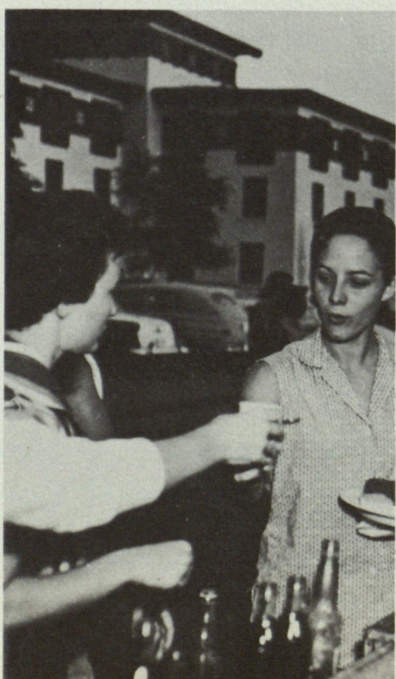

What a clean looking group ... Now ...

Who painted who????

It looks as though Freshmen students did their part, too.

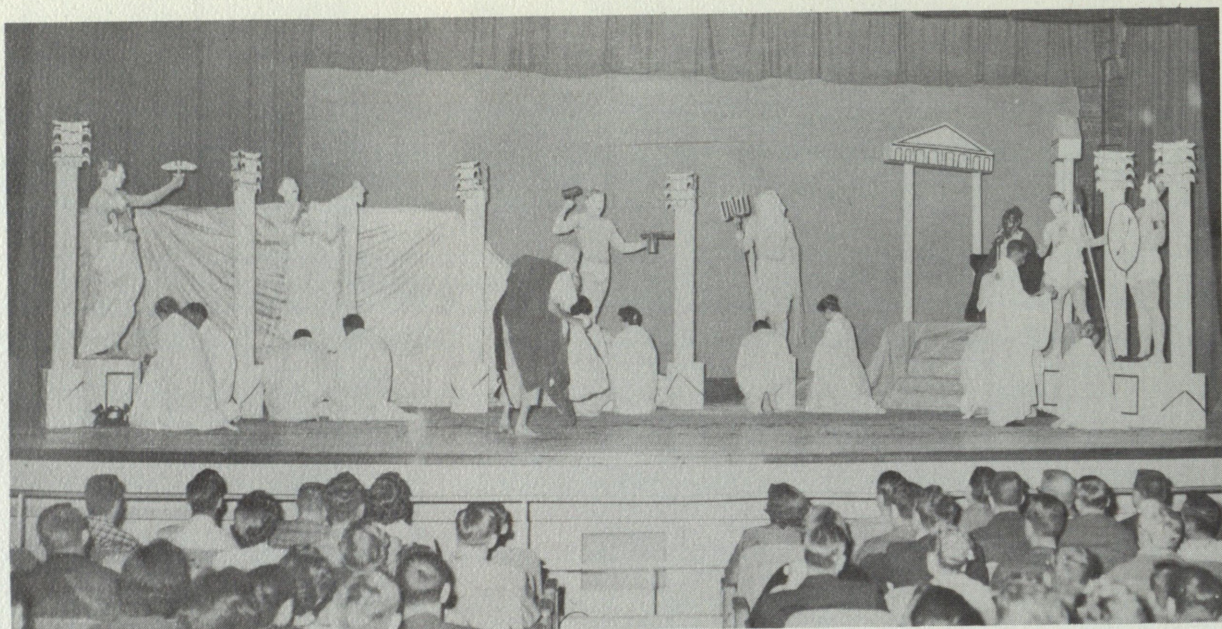

(Left), Joan Groesbeeck balances all sorts of goodies!!!

(Right), Everyone is hungry but I need a toothpick!!!

M
D
A
Y

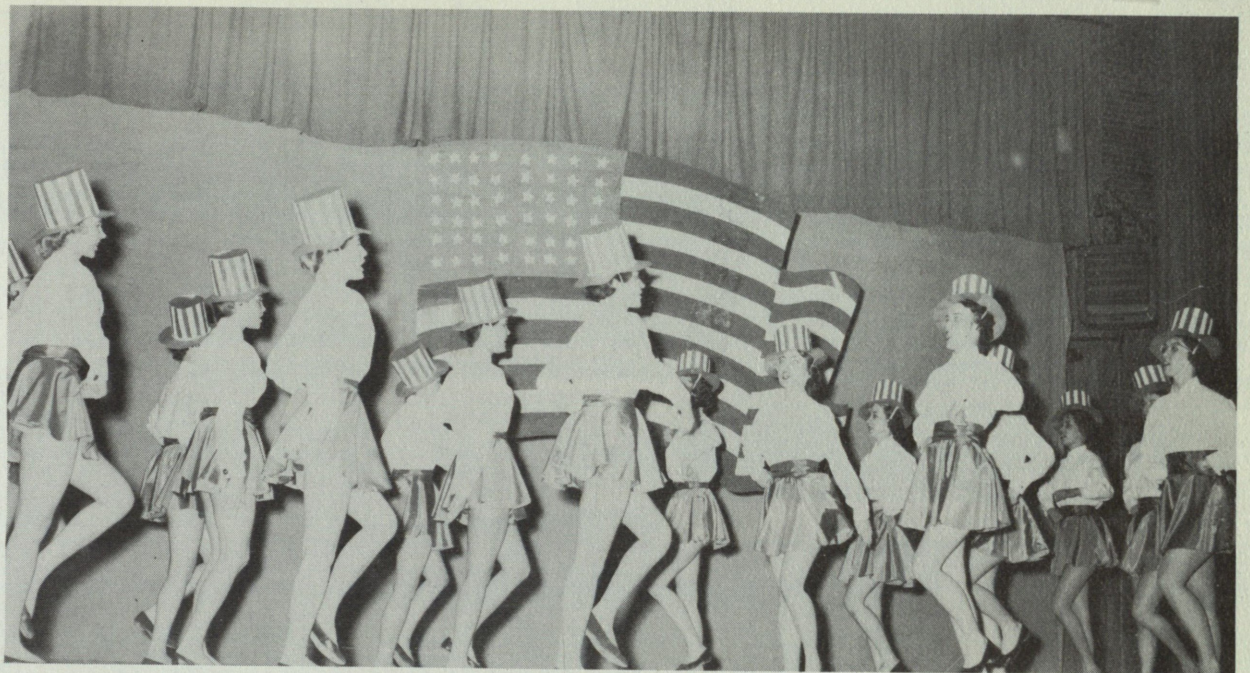

A scene from the winning Kappa Sigma Entry, "Unus Deus"

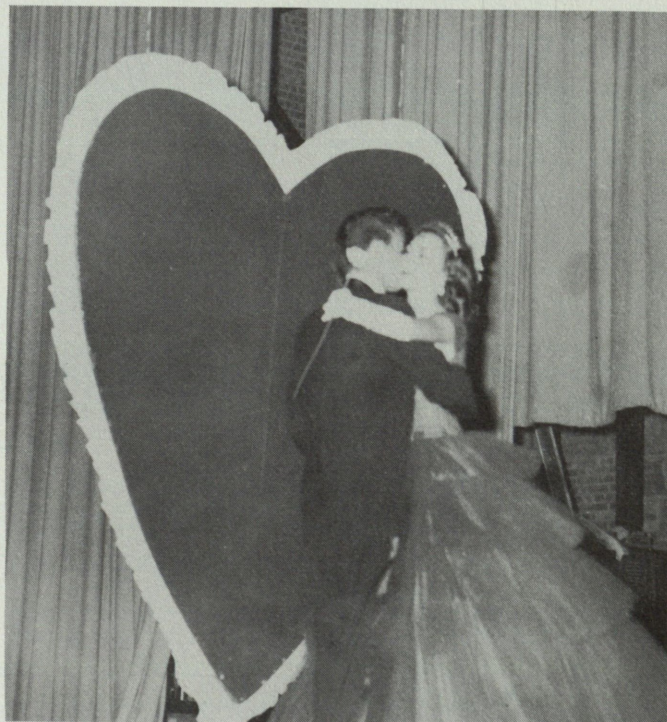

Jay Hackler accepts the first place trophy for Kappa Sigma from Bob Ackley, President of Alpha Psi Omega.

"What does America mean? I'll tell you."

"There's always a big Fourth of July Parade."

"The Vaelntine dance last year was the finest."

A portrait of song and dance, Unus Deus.

ELECTIONS

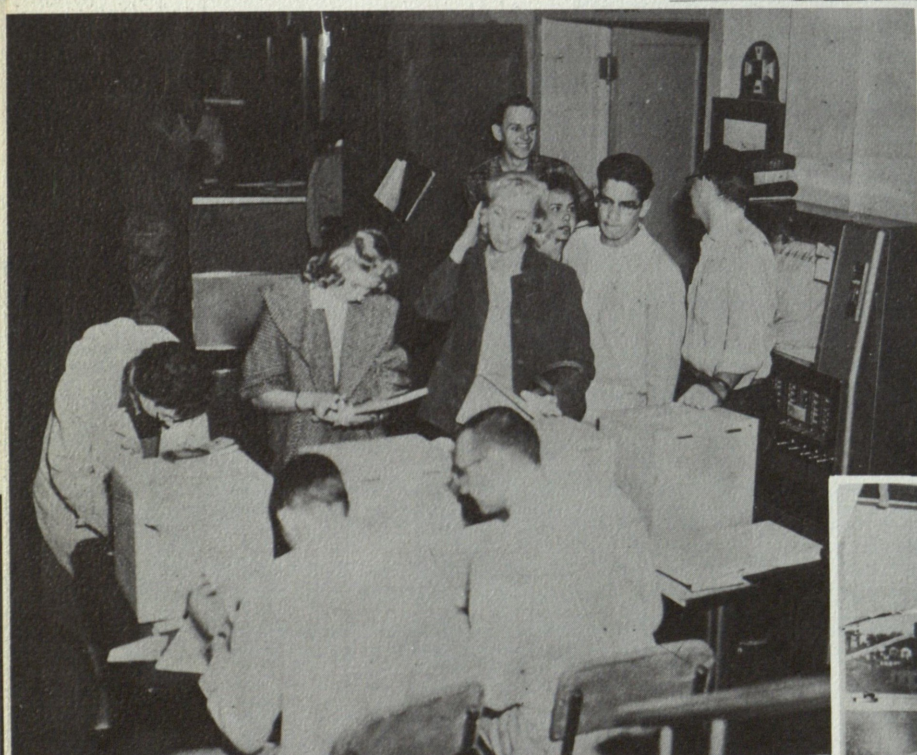

There's not much happening right now, it something is bound to at any minute. 'e'll keep you posted.

For FROSH REPRESENTATIVE

Jill DONOHUE FOR all TWC FAVORITE

ELECTIONS
WED 8 AM 5

SUN
PRINCESS DARK LARA

Sighted through the hoop with election returns are eager student council members.

Hmm, it's a hard choice!

The Kenton popularity grew on campus after this great concert sponsored by the S. A. Association.

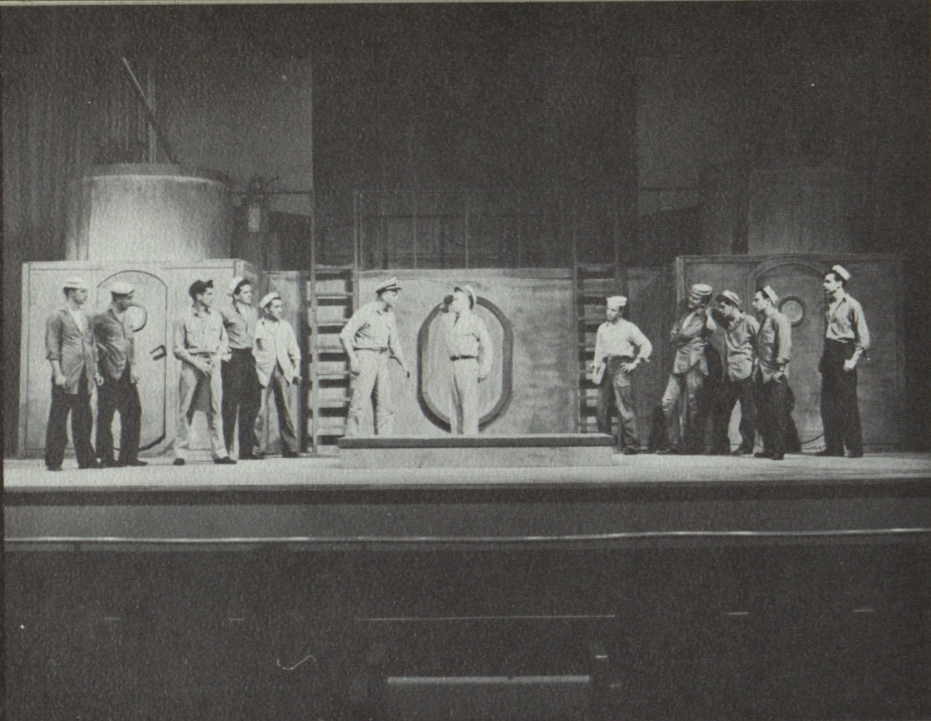

"And for our next number,"

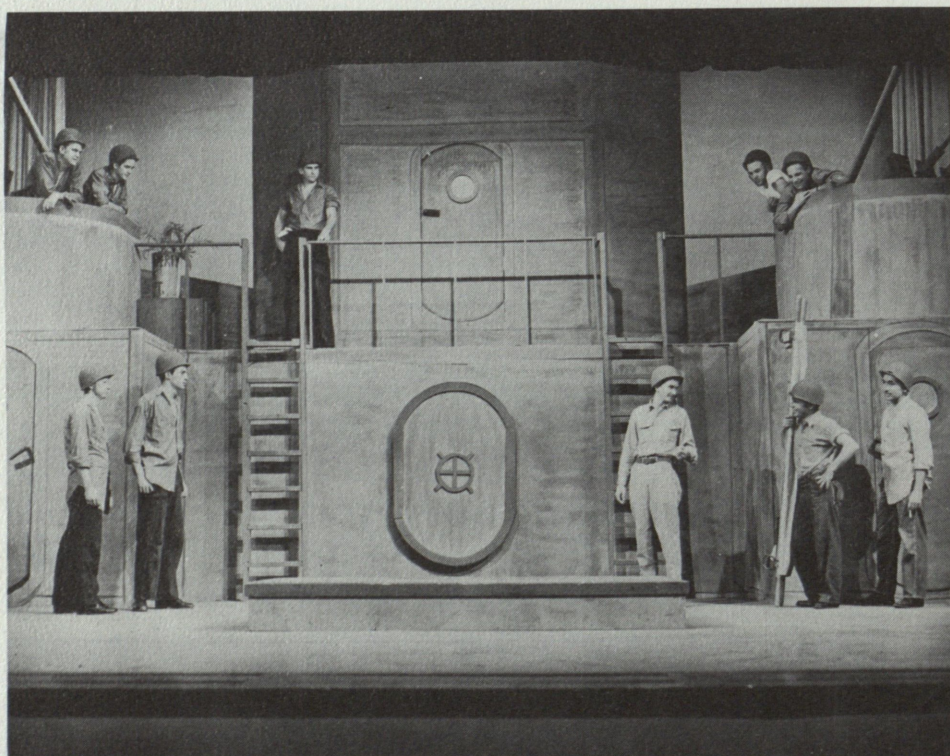

Trombone is the word and Stan Kenton knew how to use it.

STAN KENTON

"M
R.
R
O
B
E
R
T
S"

"Pulver, sir. Ensign Pulver."

"Bring the stretcher.
We may need it."

"This is the last liberty this bucket's gonna have."

"Man, oh man, what a party!"

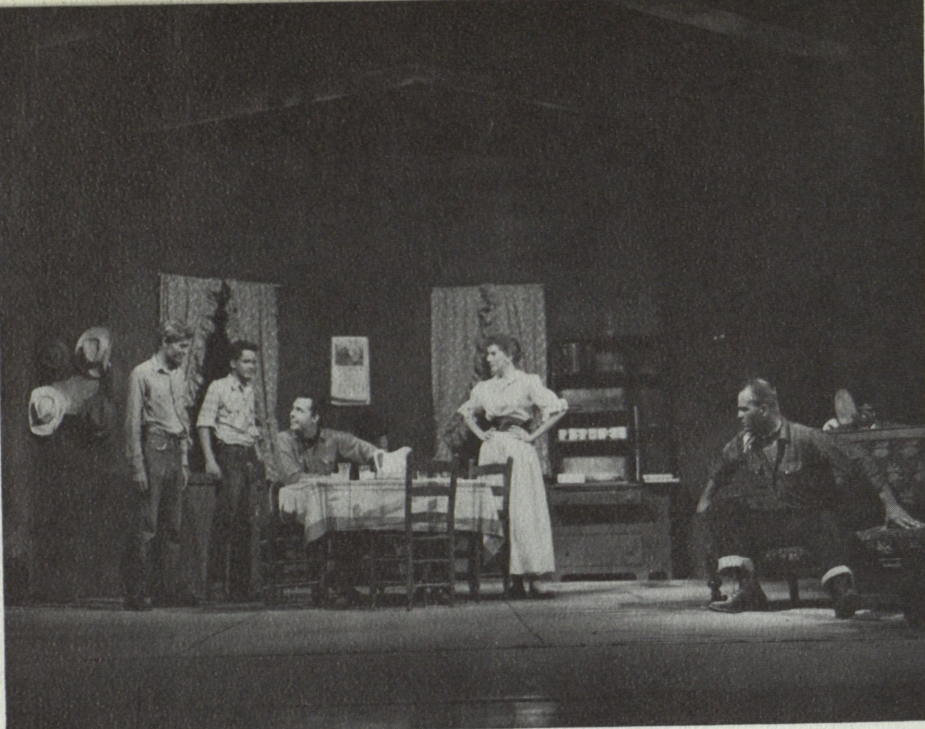

"I love you, you dope."

"I ought to punch you right in the nose!"

"THE TENDER TRAP"

"THE RAIN MAKER"

"I knew this chair had my name written on it."

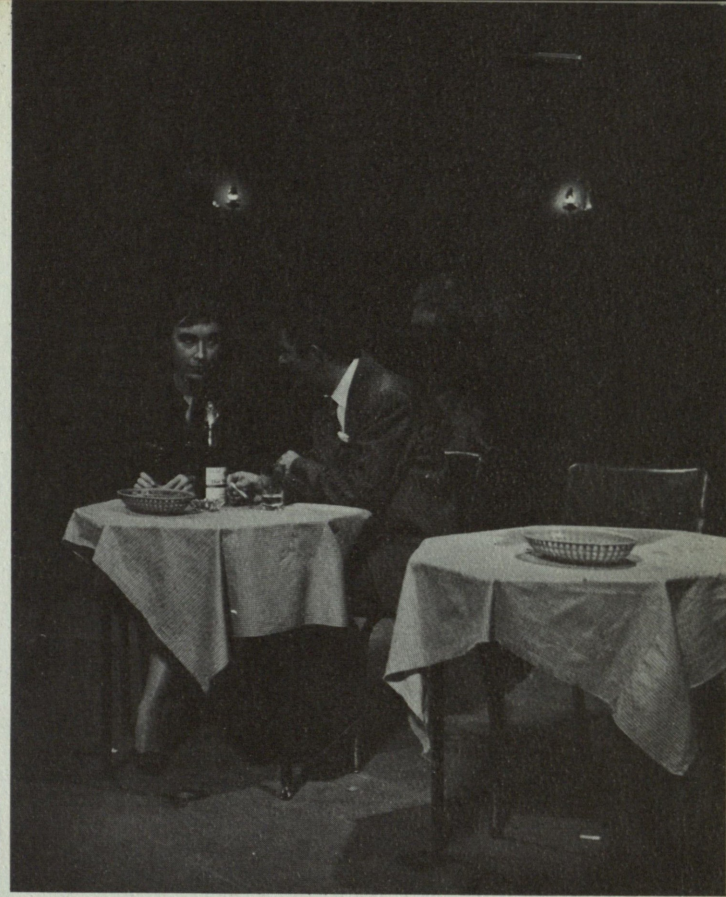

"I ain't aimin' to come to dinner."

"Rain! For the first time in my life, I made rain!"

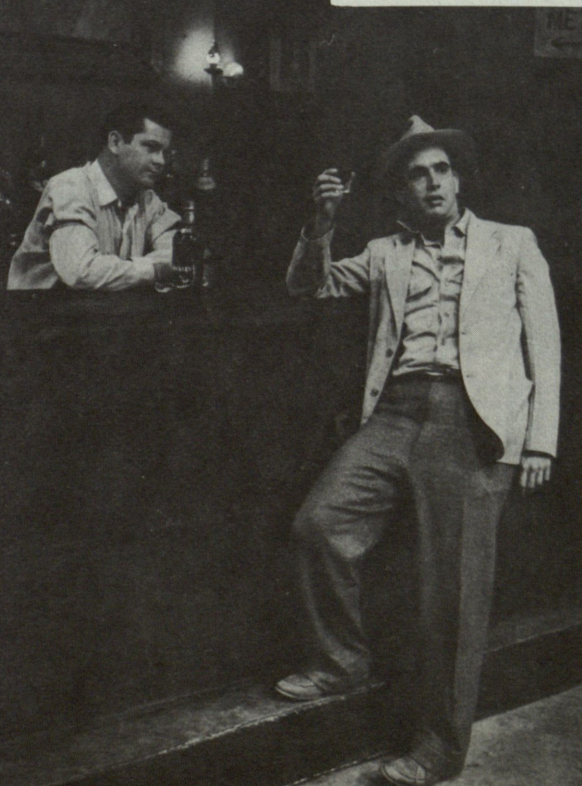

"Are you really in love with me?"

"Now here's the picture"

"Here's to President Taft!"

"THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE"

"MERRY WIDOW"

Sandra Ogden and Robert Montes sing a love duet in the garden scene of "The Merry Widow."

CAN-CAN

These charming ballerinas display their skills in "Symphonie in Green"

Around, around, and around we go to the "Marsovian Dance."

This lovely chorus line, led by Ellen Jane Maris, dances the Can-Can in Maxim.

Prince Danilo questions the Merry Widow concerning her sincerity and love for him.

This septet compiled of the "elite gentlemen" of the court discuss women's lack of merits. From left to right they are: Joe Blackburn, David Delves, Raul Guerca, Ernesto Valenzuela, Sam Blackburn, Joe Falco, and Phil Tanner.

"M
E
R
R
Y

W
I
D
O
W"

Popoff deceitfully alibies a mouse so that he may get to view "the interesting scenery."

"SLEEPING BEAUTY"

"Burn all the spinning wheels"

"Here's your pie."

"Now let the sleep of 100 years begin!"

"You have the soul of a servant, Nicola."

"A cavalry charge, you can't guess how splendid it is."

"I want my hurt made well."

"A
R
M
S
&
T
H
E
M A N"

The Student Publications department did a nice job of informing the student body of activities concerning the campus. The Prospector told about the events that had happened, the El Burro made jokes about them and The Flowsheet gave a pictorial record of the year's events. We also witnessed the Nugget tell all of our exes about the happenings of TWC.