The 1962-63 cheerleaders were the main source of spirit this year. They saw the football team, with its new coach, through a successful season and cheered the basketball team, one of the finest in the country. These enthusiastic girls brought pep rallies to the campus for the first time, and they appeared on television several times for the purpose of promoting school spirit. Their support of all school activities was noticed by their peppy, new uniforms seen at nearly every function. From left to right, top row: Carole Jenness, Dianne Irvin, Sandi Van Brunt. Coach O. A. (Bum) Phillips, new to Texas Western this year, led our team through its most promising season in many years.

FOOTBALL

The respect and admiration for Coach Phillips is plainly evident, not only among the athletes, but among the students as well.

RECORDS

Coach Don Haskins played his college ball at Oklahoma State and came to Texas Western in 1961 to guide our team through its most successful season in T. W. C.'s history and to a bid in the N.C.A.A. tournaments.

Bobby Joe Hill

Arizona's attempt to divert our ball proved to be unsuccessful and we kept the ball.

Bobby Leslie

Willie Brown's superior jumping ability illustrates why we had such a winning season.

Texas Western's offense sees this ball into the basket for another two points.

Fancy footwork is one of the keynotes to our continuous victories.
